WE'VE THOUGHT OF EVERYTHING...

SO YOU CAN DISCOVER THE NORTHWEST PASSAGE IN COMFORT AND STYLE.

BEFORE YOU EXPLORE: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

So grand is the voyage, so magnificent the adventure, Crystal's Northwest Passage has been two years in the making. We've conferred with authorities, planned with experts, and engaged the local communities to ensure every detail of this incredible adventure is attended to with the thoughtful finesse and skilled expertise the world's most discerning travelers have come to expect from the World's Best cruise line.

Ilulissat, Greenland

An expedition ashore on a Zodiac.

How can a luxury cruise ship offer an expedition-style voyage in the Arctic?

Crystal Serenity is experienced in operating in some of the world's most extreme locations, such as Alaska and Antarctica, and will be navigating the Northwest Passage at the most optimum time of year, when the ice significantly recedes allowing vessels to safely transit with minimal risk of encountering ice concentrations. Two ice pilots will join the Captain and trained bridge team at all times, and the ship will be equipped with state-of-the-art sonar technologies. The region is not as remote as one might think and the itinerary will pass communities that have regularly scheduled commercial air service. Given the limited infrastructure of many of the communities we will visit, an escort vessel will accompany Crystal Serenity, carrying with it "adventure equipment" including a platform for wilderness landings, Zodiacs, kayaks and a helicopter.

What wildlife will I see?

Seals, whales and seabirds may be seen throughout the voyage and in High Arctic regions Crystal Serenity may encounter walrus, narwhal, beluga and bowhead whales. Musk-oxen might be seen on shore, and the passage boasts teeming colonies of kittiwakes, guillemots and murres. In general, wildlife along the Northwest Passage is unpredictable and often difficult to spot, and while polar bears thrive in this region, there is no guarantee that any will be seen on the transit. However, the expedition team will maintain a keen eye so that if an opportunity arises and conditions allow, the Captain will attempt to position the vessel accordingly.

What kind of excursions will be offered ashore?

We have created a series of immersive Crystal Adventures unique to this itinerary:

- Complimentary Community Visits will provide insight into the daily lives and customs of the Arctic people. Guests will have the opportunity to go ashore independently in smaller groups to explore communities and experience the daily life of local cultures.
- Crystal Wilderness Adventures will be serendipitous stops when weather and wildlife present opportunities for sightseeing, whale watching and Zodiac landings.
- Crystal Boutique Adventures & Crystal Arctic Adventures will feature thrilling explorations such as helicopter flightseeing, kayaking and whale watching by Zodiac.
- "You Care. We Care." Voluntourism opportunities will be offered on a complimentary basis with occasions to participate in local cultural activities.

How do I pack? What do I need to bring?

We recommend packing clothes that can be layered in natural, breathable fabrics of cotton and wool, along with windproof, waterproof clothing and shoes. Crystal will provide water-resistant parkas and boot rentals, and will partner with a wilderness outfitter offering expedition clothing for purchase. Onboard evening attire will be significantly relaxed, with no formal evenings at all. A detailed packing list will be provided prior to the voyage.

Crocker Bay

Are there any medical, physical or insurance requirements for this voyage?

There are no medical requirements, such as vaccines, for this voyage. Guests are urged to carefully select their shoreside activities and wilderness adventures based on individual fitness levels as most sightseeing ashore is on foot, and some expeditions may have physical requirements. Certain landings may be restricted for some guests due to landing conditions and guest ability. Emergency medical evacuation from the Arctic by plane can reach costs of $50,000 or more, therefore, proof of a minimum of $50,000 per person in Emergency Evacuation Repatriation insurance is required to participate in this cruise. Separate trip insurance is not required, but strongly encouraged.

How do I book?

Talk to your travel agent about the grandeur of the Northwest Passage and the all-inclusive luxury and value of Crystal Cruises. And visit us at crystalcruises.com/nwp for more detailed information and Frequently Asked Questions.

Will there be Internet access and mobile phone coverage?

The ship's Internet and telephone services will be available for approximately 90% of the expedition, although signals may be slowed or not available at all in the northernmost areas. Shore-based cell phone signals will not be available, except in some of the towns we visit—and guests are asked not to use local signals so the local community's capacity is not overwhelmed. The Captain and crew will always have operational and emergency communication throughout the entire voyage.

What kind of environmental footprint will the ship make?

Crystal Serenity will be voluntarily using marine gas oil, an extremely clean-burning, low-sulphur fuel that far exceeds regulations, as will the escort ship. The ship's sophisticated waste management equipment, storage and procedures ensure nothing will be left behind. With regard to the individual communities, we will be working in advance with community leaders to ensure our visits are a positive experience for both locals and guests.
