Changing the world through travel

G Adventures CEO Michael helps to install a cookstove in a rural Tanzanian village.

When you travel with G Adventures, you get more than the adventure of a lifetime. You become a part of a worldwide social enterprise 25 years in the making that connects you with people and places in a way you never could on your own. But you also support small businesses and help the communities you meet to help themselves.

Each G Adventures tour connects local people to the global travel economy, ensuring that more of your travel dollars stay with those who earn and need them. They get to provide for their families, maintain their cultures, and live better lives. You get to discover your world, make new friends, and earn memories you'll remember for the rest of your life. It's win-win.

Making the world a better place is easy.

All you have to do is have the time of your life.

G Adventures for Good

At its heart, travel is about exchange. That's why G Adventures ensures that the communities our travellers explore with us get something back from the experience, too. Since 1990, we've integrated over 25 self-sustaining G Adventures for Good initiatives into over 100 of our itineraries. These projects address local challenges, providing benefits for indigenous people, empowering marginalized women, and granting disadvantaged youth access to education, employment, and brighter futures.

Preserving the places we love and helping the people who live there isn't just the right thing to do – it's a part of who we are. And we're just getting started. Check out the sidebar at right to find out how you can help us put a little more good into the world.

sta TRAVEL

Travel for a better world

Twenty-five years is a long time to do anything, never mind run a travel company that stubbornly refuses to stop growing. I've always been a little uncomfortable with anniversaries and birthdays and things like that – they're occasions to look back on the past, while I prefer to think about the future. That's why I like to think of our first 25 years as just the warm-up.

It's always been my vision for G Adventures to be leaders and innovators, and I've been fortunate to surround myself with people who think the same way about thinking differently. That philosophy has led us to pioneer all sorts of cool things, like 24/7 service, 100% Guaranteed Departures, our no-single-supplements policy, Planeterra, and, of course, all of our game-changing tours. Our recent partnerships with National Geographic, the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), and Multilateral Investment Fund (MIF) are, to me, proof that we're on to something big here.

But what I'm most proud of isn't what our company has done for our travellers, but what our company and our travellers have done together. We speak to people who are eager to discover and connect with our amazing planet, people who want to be a part of something bigger and more powerful than themselves. Whether you're a traveller, a Chief Experience Officer, a big partner or a small-business owner just trying to make a living, you're part of our movement.

In my 25 years at the helm of this ship, we've traversed our share of clear seas and choppy waters. The world itself is no different; it's full of beautiful things and terrible things. It's our duty as travellers and human beings to turn those negatives into positives. No one of us can do it alone. But together, we can make a world of good.

Peace,

Bruce Poon Tip
Founder and Captain

Instant adventure: just add water

What's a Marine trip?

G Adventures Marine tours connect travellers to the world's greatest aquatic destinations aboard small, intimate ships and yachts. Each tour has been carefully designed to deliver unparalleled access to out-of-the-way ports and islands, and to foster meaningful connections with local people and culture in a way you simply won't get from a large cruise line.

Small ships

Bigger isn't necessarily better. We keep our vessels on the small side to get you places big ships can't. Smaller manifests mean the attention of the expedition team, naturalist guides or skipper/CEO is split among fewer people, making the experience better for everyone (including the connections you'll build with the rest of your small group of travellers).

Global groups

The average G Adventures Marine group size varies according to the vessel and the destination. Groups are often a mix of solo travellers, friends travelling together, and couples, all of varying ages and from all over the world. You'll find just about every type of person in your group. Come prepared to make some new best friends.

In-the-know experts

We employ a diverse set of experts across our Marine program whose particular skill sets reflect the environments they cruise. Whether you're with a certified Galápagos naturalist, a polar expedition leader or a specialized local Amazon guide, or licensed skipper, you'll return home with a deeper appreciation for your destination than you could've imagined.

Get social

Be sure to follow us on social media for smart tips, incredible photos, inspiring thoughts, our latest promotions, and all sorts of useful info about travelling in this world. (1.5 million people can't be wrong!)

And when you're on your tour, be sure to share photos and stories using the #GAdv hashtag so the whole G Adventures community can see them.

This is where we share the stuff we love most about our planet. Travel experiences and stories, photography, food, history, tips – anything worth sharing, really – ends up on our blog.

Skilled staff

Since your vessel will be your temporary floating home, we ensure you'll be travelling with a whole host of expert hospitality staff. Every single person – from boat captain to on-board chefs to housekeeping – is responsible for making sure you're comfortable and ensuring the time of your life goes off without a hitch.

Exclusive departures

We manage all of the vessels in our fleet, which means we exercise complete control over who gets on them, how they're maintained, and where we take them. We won't pool you together with travellers from other companies, and your captains are empowered to take you where your group wants to go.

Regional cuisine

More often than not, the vessel is your floating restaurant as well as your hotel. We make an effort to provide you with meals that reflect the character of the region you're cruising through, be it the Arctic or down the Amazon. Our chefs prepare your meals using fresh ingredients brought aboard at every port stop.

The G Difference

Changing the travel business, one great idea at a time

As small-group adventure travel pioneers, we've always done things a little bit differently. To us, there's no such thing as "outside-the-box" thinking because we don't believe in boxes. Check out a few of the ways la différence is vive'd daily around here.

100% Guaranteed Departures

The security that comes from knowing your tour is locked in is an amazing feeling. So go ahead and feel it! Every G Adventures departure is guaranteed to run, meaning once you've booked and paid, you're going. Your tour won't be cancelled by us for any reason (beyond harsh weather or safety issues).

Lifetime Deposits™

Our Lifetime Deposit policy protects you from unexpected events that may cause you (for any reason) to cancel or delay your tour. Whether you opt to use it again for the same tour, transfer it to another one, or just hold onto it for now, we've got you covered. You can even pass it on to a friend.

24/7 service

When your business covers the whole world like ours does, you have to be available and accountable all the time. If you've got a question about a tour – even if it's the one you're currently on – we're here to help. Always. We never sleep. NEVER.

No single supplements

We treat solo travellers to the same benefits as the rest of the group, which is why we don't charge single supplements. We'll partner you up with a same-sex roommate (or several for multi-share accommodations) to ensure you pay the same as everyone else.

Choice

Not to toot our own horn or anything, but we offer the widest variety of destinations, departure dates, Travel Styles and Service Levels in the business. No matter where, when, how, or why you want to travel, we've got the tour of a lifetime for you. (Toot.)

Value

What you saw and did should be the most memorable part of your tour, not the price you paid for it. We offer unforgettable travel experiences at the most competitive prices you'll find anywhere. How? By following an approach to travel that keeps operating costs low and savings high.

Satisfaction

We're pretty proud of our customer satisfaction record. A whopping 99% of our travellers report satisfaction with the service we offered them on their tour. How do we do that? By listening to them. It's just one of the many ways we lead with service.

Global network

There's a great big world out there, and with almost two dozen sales and operations offices worldwide, you're never far from one. With a fleet of exclusive boats, lodges and vehicles at our disposal, we can deliver an experience that's consistently G Adventures-y from start to finish.

Welcome aboard the Expedition

Small ship, enormous adventures at the ends of the Earth and beyond

Not only will the G Expedition steer you closer to some of our planet's most amazing places, our professional and highly-skilled team of onboard experts offer keen insight, unique perspectives, and hands-on attention not found in a guidebook. You simply can't get to the Arctic and Antarctica on your own or get as much out of South America's Pacific coast as we can, so make your next tour a voyage you'll remember for the rest of your life. Join us on an out-and-out extraordinary adventure and return home a different person than when you left.

TOP Hop off the Expedition right onto the Zodiac. The adventure never stops. 1. "I still think I could have sued the Beatles." 2. Getting some last minute kayaking tips. 3. No, the ice isn't green in Greenland, but it's a magical sight nonetheless.

The @ difference

Travelling to the Earth's most out-there shores can be an almost otherworldly experience. If you're going to go all that way, you'd better go with the best. Here're a few traits that set us apart:

Your (floating) home away from home

The Expedition's welcome is always warm no matter the temperature. Your journey is enhanced through daily lectures and by the friendly comfort and care of our on-ship staff and crew.

Unparalleled knowledge

Our team of experts offers over 130 years of cumulative expedition experience. Rest easy knowing there's always a steady hand on the tiller.

Uncommon experiences

Polar kayaking brings you closer to the beauty of these snowbound paradises than you can imagine. You can even make a more solid connection with the land by camping out on Antarctica's ice fields.

Zodiacs: your way to the shore

The Expedition is equipped with a large fleet of Zodiac boats for shore excursions, including hikes, wildlife spotting, and archaeological explorations. And the crew is always ready to lend a hand.

Expedition equipment

The ship is equipped with a Zodiac platform for boarding and a dedicated mudroom to keep your stuff safe and warm while you're away. And leave your boots at home; we'll provide you with a complimentary pair for the duration of your cruise.

A parka made for adventurin'

Save more room in your luggage for souvenirs and leave your coat at home. Polar travellers get their very own parka that's theirs to keep! See page 28 for details.

Expedition Team

Go with those who know

Experts in everything from geology to marine biology and polar history, the members of our expedition team are always eager to share their infectious passion for the plants, animals, and people you'll encounter. There's some truly amazing stuff out there, and our experts make sure you find it. Add in professional hotel staff and seasoned crew, and you'll be more than comfortable on your journey on the water.

Meet a few of your G Expedition team members

Susan Adie,
Expedition leader

A native of the great state of New York, Susan went to sea in 1989 as a naturalist and lecturer and never really came back to shore.

An expedition leader with over 150 Antarctica expeditions under her belt, she's led tours in the Amazon, Svalbard, Siberia, the North and South Pacific, and Greenland, too. A four-year veteran of the Expedition, Susan currently serves as our Expedition Operations Manager.

Jonathan Green,
Expedition leader

Born and raised in England, Jonathan holds a BSc in Geology and Geography from the University of North London, trained as a naturalist with the Galápagos National Park Service, and has been a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society since 1989. Jonathan has worked in the Galápagos, the Amazon, Antarctica, the Arctic, Africa, and the Americas as a diver and photographer.

Paul Teolis,
Photographer

An award-winning photographer, educator, and filmmaker, Paul's travels have taken him from Bhutan to Antarctica and just about everywhere in between. In 2012, he designed and launched the Photographer-in-Residence program aboard the Expedition, and his exceptional portfolio of polar photography was recently featured in the Taiwanese edition of Harper's Bazaar.

TOP Cruise control: All smiles from our Arctic expedition team. 1. Sit back and relax while our team does most of the work. 2. The Expedition is beautiful, but you'll have loads of time to explore the world beyond it as well. 3. Let our experts show you how to take the perfect shot.

10:1

passenger-to-expert ratio

More on-hand experts means deeper access and greater understanding of the planet's most amazing places. Our experts' lectures, Q&A sessions and personal reflection deliver a personalized and intimate perspective on these faraway shores.

Shore excursions

Getting out into the thick of things is such a vital component of polar adventuring that we've made it a priority. The Expedition is equipped with a full-service Zodiac platform for easy disembarking, a mudroom to keep your stuff warm and dry when you're not using it, and a library stocked with guidebooks. And with fewer passengers per trip, we have the freedom to land wherever we like. We'll even throw in a pair of waterproof boots so you don't have to pack your own and a stylish parka that's yours to keep. See page 28 for more.

Photography expert included

Each Expedition tour comes with a resident photography expert to help you capture the best possible photos. Our photographer hosts lectures and workshops to teach you all the tips and tricks you need to know.

Add to your experience

Push your Expedition cruise to the limit

You're already going to the edge of the Earth or the shores of South America; go a bit further. Make your voyage a little more yours (and a lot more amazing) by booking extra activities. Explore bustling Buenos Aires before your cruise, kayak through the floes, or camp out on the Antarctic ice itself. It's your trip; make it legendary.

Arctic and Antarctic kayaking

Nothing connects you to the blissful solitude and fragile beauty of the polar regions quite like paddling through them yourself in a low-slung kayak. Kayaking excursions are dependent on the weather, but we'll try our best to get you out as much as possible. Participants should come with a working knowledge of strokes, entries, and exits.

Antarctic camping

Experience the sounds of heaving ice, the fresh scent of the sea, and the crisp air of Antarctica in the polar night by camping on the ice itself. We provide all the equipment – winterized tents, sleeping bags, and other equipment, so all you have to do is lie back and enjoy it (and you will). The only thing we don't include: hassles.

Antarctica hotel and flight package

Start your Antarctica adventure off on the right foot and get your accommodation and transport needs in Argentina sorted up-front. Beginning a day before you join your Antarctica cruise, this package includes a pre-cruise night in a comfort-class Buenos Aires hotel, included flights to and from Ushuaia, and all necessary airport transfers.

Nazca Lines extension

These ancient, UNESCO-protected glyphs carved into the desert floor are a sight that simply must be seen, and they're best witnessed from the air. Add this feature to your South America cruise and take to the skies over Peru for the best possible look at these mysterious designs.

BOOK NOW

Camping and kayaking excursions fill up quickly and cannot be added to your adventure after departure. See pages 58 for details.

TOP Kayaks and Antarctica: a match made in heaven.

1. Trekking the mountains of Spitsbergen. 2. "Guys, stop trying to fly. We've got visitors." 3. Make yourself at home. 4. Kayaking directions: Take a right at the iceberg.

Small is the new big

Get even closer to the perfect shot

Uniquely equipped to handle the rigours of extreme-environment cruising, the G Expedition provides a spacious, comfortable, and safe experience for all of her guests and top-flight sightlines to nab the perfect photo. Big enough to host 134 passengers comfortably and small enough to access spots beyond the reach of the big liners, she's a little ship that feels surprisingly big.

Room to move

Travellers tell us all the time about how unexpectedly spacious they found the Expedition's cabins and common areas. Hey, even explorers need a little extra legroom sometimes.

Swift and smooth

The ship's advanced stabilizers take the pitch and roll out of the ocean, ensuring your stay on board is as smooth as possible.

Top-notch sightlines

Between the 360° outdoor decks, the raised observation platform, and broad windows in common areas (and some cabins, too!), you'll never miss that perfect shot.

TOP Our Arctic Expedition. She's a beaut, ain't she? 1. Enjoy every warm moment you can. 2. Our on-ship photography experts can help you figure out how to frame your shots better. 3. Getting ready in the mud room for another shore excursion. Not shown: mud. 4. Everyone can get a spot up front for maximum viewing.

NEW ENGINES

We've upgraded the Expedition's engines this year. The new-and-improved Expedition consumes less fuel, generates fewer emissions, and leaves a lighter footprint on the planet.

IAATO- and AECO-approved

G Adventures is committed to sustainable travel. We ensure that all of our marine expeditions adhere to environmental practices above and beyond the compliance regulations of the regions we explore. Look after the planet and it'll look after you, too.

The hotel that floats

Great amenities that go wherever you do

A small-yet-spacious ship with a big-ship feel, the Expedition offers superbly appointed public areas designed to educate, entertain, inspire, and get you sweating (but not necessarily in that order). Be it a lounge, a library, a fitness room, or a sauna, the ship has something for every traveller. And common areas are all set up with wi-fi so you can stay connected to the outside world.

Expedition Lounge

Framed on three sides by magnificent views, the large and inviting Expedition Lounge offers enough padded sofas and chairs to accommodate everyone comfortably. It's also where our on-ship lectures, briefings, and recaps take place.

Lonely Planet Library

Stocked with books on the flora and fauna of the polar regions as well as an extensive selection of Lonely Planet guidebooks, the library is the perfect place to contemplate what you saw today and prepare for what you'll see tomorrow. iPads and copies of the ship's daily paper are available at reception.

Polar Bear Pub

The warm heart of the ship, the Polar Bear Pub offers a cozy spot to unwind and reflect alongside friends and our team members. With music provided most nights by our resident musician, a wide selection of beverages, and entertaining bartenders serving them up, it's quite a happening spot.

Gym/Sauna

Just because you're at sea doesn't mean you can't squeeze in a workout. The Expedition's gym features new, state-of-the-art equipment, all the towels and cool water you need, a soothing sauna, and some of the best darned views you'll ever see.

Albatross Dining Room

Spacious enough to host a full complement of passengers in a single sitting, the Albatross Dining Room serves up a diverse array of gourmet fare three times daily prepared by a team of skilled chefs. They also offer afternoon tea service and complimentary snacks, as well as coffee from the G Adventurers-supported Mi Cafecito coffee cooperative.

Q: What's the best part of your job?

A: "Making the passengers happy. I like to make whatever passengers need and we can cater to any special requests and diet needs. I get to work around the world with an amazing team."

— Tony, Chef

Cruising Antarctica

A world away from ordinary

On December 14, 1911, Roald Amundsen and four fellow Norwegian explorers became the first men to reach the South Pole, beating the ill-fated British team headed by Captain Robert F Scott by just over a month. One hundred years later, Antarctica remains a continent of superlatives that will leave your mind searching for words to describe it. The few travellers fortunate enough to explore Antarctica's vast expanses return home forever changed by an experience so awe-inspiring that it reaches to their very core.

TOP Penguins; definitely not the shyest creatures you'll meet. 1. Seeing wildlife this close really seals the deal. 2. All hands on deck... holding cameras. 3. Every moment will be the perfect selfie moment.. 4. "Now just the boys! Row, row row your boat..."

The @ difference

Antarctica is so otherworldly it can be easy to forget that you're actually still on Earth. Our adventures down here keep that out-there feeling alive.

Cold, hard facts

For a place without any indigenous cultures, Antarctica has a fascinating human history. Stop in at a scientific research station to learn more about how this harsh land was tamed.

Want the ultimate unbeatable travel anecdote? Strip down to your skivvies (or a swimsuit), dive on into the ice-cold waters at the bottom of the world, and earn bragging rights for life.

The vastness of Antarctica is overpowering in person. Crossing the Drake Passage and spotting icebergs were amazing experiences, but I'll remember that polar plunge forever.

WHY THIS TOUR?

Springtime in Antarctica

Antarctica's ice begins to recede in November, which means the penguins are out and about, building nests and mating. The snow is at its freshest and most beautiful at this time of year, too. And with six full days, there's more time to explore this region.

Cruising the Arctic

Into the Great White North

The vast expanse of the Arctic conjures up images of sparse and inhospitable snow-covered lands. However, when summer arrives, this region springs to life with a magnificent bounty of wildlife and awe-inspiring natural wonder. In the high Arctic, you'll find the polar bear hunting seals on the open ice and encounter colonies of seabirds enjoying short summers of abundance on the tundra. Combining anthropology, history, and personal anecdote, our Expedition team will reveal the Arctic as one of the most culturally rich and historically fascinating areas on the planet.

TOP "Nope, still can't see when the fun is going to end." 1. In Longyearbyen, it's pretty crucial to get along with your neighbours – there aren't many to choose from. 2. Our Zodiacs will get you even closer. 3. Scobie, one of the Expedition's expert crew. 4. "They're looking over here. Quick, act natural."

The @ difference

Sure, it's a little cold up in the Arctic, but when you travel with us, the welcome is always warm. Here's how we make this frozen kingdom come alive.

Your own personal ice age

Sail right up to the edge of the Arctic icepack at 80°N and keep an eye out for polar bears. It doesn't get much more quintessentially arctic than this.

Follow that bear!

Improve your odds of catching a glimpse of Ursus maritimus from the bridge of the Expedition. Someone's on watch 24 hours a day, so you'll always be among expert company.

Enjoy the silence

You may not think of it as such, but the arctic tundra is considered the planet's smallest forest. The disarming quietude of this place is indescribable. Just stand still and let it envelop you.

ITINERARY

From close-up encounters with icebergs and glaciers to the region's plentiful wildlife, this is a voyage of non-stop highlights. Always on the lookout for wildlife that live in this polar wilderness, you'll explore this landscape not only by ship but also on foot and via Zodiac. Roaming polar bears, lounging seals, grazing reindeer, and colonies of birds all co-exist in this harsh land we dare only to explore a few months of the year.

DAY 1 LONGYEARBYEN Transfer from Longyearbyen to the G Expedition for a 4pm embarkation. (1D)

DAYS 2-7 SVALBARD/SPITSBERGEN Visit ice-covered fjords with breathtaking mountain scenery and glaciers. Spend time exploring the natural wilderness searching for polar bears hunting seals. Look out for arctic foxes or Svalbard's unique reindeer at one or more stops. The Expedition crew's goal is to give travellers the best possible opportunity to see wildlife in and around the Svalbard archipelago (dependent on weather conditions). Early-season voyages often provide the greatest opportunity to see large ice floes in the Arctic pack ice, which usually means excellent wildlife viewing. Later in the season, the Expedition will cover more territory, possibly exploring the entire archipelago. This can lead into the less explored regions of Nordaustlandet and Kvitøya, or the continental edges where large whales are attracted by nutrient rich upwellings. (6B, 6L, 6D) DAY 8 LONGYEARBYEN On the departure day, there will be transfers available to the Longyearbyen airport for all passengers with flights scheduled after 4am. (1B) mountain scenery and glaciers crashing into the sea. Spend time exploring pack ice edges in search of polar bears hunting seals. Ice conditions sometimes allow sailing through the Hinlopenstretet towards the east coast of Spitsbergen, then through Freemansundet towards the south. On some departures, explore alternative routes to maximize time in this remote destination. Early season voyages often provide the greatest opportunity to see large ice floes in the Arctic pack ice, which usually means excellent wildlife viewing. Later in the season, the Expedition will cover more territory, possibly exploring the entire archipelago. This can lead into the less explored regions of Nordaustlandet and Kvitøya, or the continental edges where large whales are attracted by nutrient rich upwellings. (9B, 9L, 9D) DAY 11 LONGYEARBYEN On departure day, transfers to the Longyearbyen airport will be offered to all passengers with flights scheduled after 4am. (1B)

Cruising South America

Pure splendour on the Pacific

There aren't many coastlines on this planet that can rival South America's for glorious scenery, fascinating history, and captivating port cities. Our South America cruise program links Ushuaia on the southern tip of Argentina to gorgeous Cartagena in Colombia with zillions of I-can't-believe-we-got-to-do-that experiences (including a trip through the Panama Canal) along the way.

We're big on customization at G Adventures, and these cruises are no exception. Do the complete route or just your favourite stretch – your options are as wide open as the Pacific itself.

TOP The Expedition making her way along South America's Pacific coast. 1. The buildings in Colombia are as warm and inviting as the people. 2. Machu Picchu in all its glory. 3. Explore Laguna San Rafael on our Zodiac. 4. All this adventuring is bound to make you thirsty, so we've got the Malbec ready.

NEW FOR 2016

A new addition to our Marine lineup, the South America Cruising program opens up the continent's Pacific coast in a whole new way.

The @ difference

We've got you covered

No other cruise along the South American west coast comes with the sheer number and diversity of included activities as this one does. Small-boat excursions, snorkelling, Machu Picchu, a winery tour – you name it and it's probably already included. We don't want you worrying you may have missed something; just enjoy yourself.

Not your typical cruise

Whatever your pleasure, this massive journey covers it. Spy on penguins from a Zodiac, roam among the glaciers of Torres del Paine National Park, discover the best-preserved Incan ruins in the world, swim under warm waterfalls, canoe into the green Darien Jungle, and then meander to your heart's content along the clear-blue Caribbean coastline.

Sail with the best

The staff and crew of the Expedition share a passion for adventure and especially for sea travel. Smart and at the ready, they offer a diverse range of expertise: geology, ornithology, photography, history, and more. They're on board to answer every question and make sure you get the best possible understanding of the South American Pacific coast.

Spot the Nazca Lines

Peru's mysterious Nazca Lines (giant glyphs carved into the desert floor by the ancient Nazca culture) continue to baffle scientists to this day. See if you can figure out their meaning and book this optional tour extension to see them from a chartered plane.

Welcome to the

Galápagos Islands

Dive into nature's workshop

Snorkel with sea lions, soak up the sun with the iguanas or simply marvel at the natural beauty that surrounds you – just a typical day in the Galápagos archipelago! Situated 965km (600 mi) off the coast of Ecuador, this isolated haven of biodiversity remains nature's greatest science laboratory, home to a dazzling array of birds, reptiles, fish, and mammals that you won't find anywhere else. With no known predators, the wildlife here exhibit almost no fear of humans, but really, if you got to lay about on the stark lava fields of Rábida or the white-sand beaches of Española island, you'd be pretty mellow, too.

TOP "Nobody told me to wear white. I'm outta here." 1. Getting ready to continue the fun on shore. 2. Bartolomé Island, a sight for sore eyes. 3. In the Galápagos, the next natural wonder is always just a short kayak trip away.

The @ difference

Just like everywhere else we go, G Adventures explores the Galápagos a little differently. Small groups and dedicated CEOs are just the beginning. Take a deeper dive into how we get around out here:

Smaller is better

We keep our group sizes intentionally small – in the Galápagos, it's either 16 or 20 travellers – in order to deliver a more personal experience. This ensures that everyone gets to interact with each trip's dedicated naturalist guide, be it on the ship or during on-shore hikes and landings.

Great guides

Each vessel features its own naturalist guide who knows the islands and their inhabitants like the back of their well-tanned hands. G Adventures CEOs are empowered to pursue amazing experiences as they happen, even ones that aren't on the itinerary.

Everything's included

Unlike other travel companies, we include the cost of your in-and-out airfare between Quito and the Galápagos. Transition smoothly in and out of adventure mode at a comfortable hotel in Quito before and after your tour.

Unbeatable variety

With five yachts, two service levels and seven- and ten-day itineraries, we've got a Galápagos adventure that aligns perfectly with your budget and timetable.

Combine Peru & the Galápagos

If you've always longed to strike both Machu Picchu and the Galápagos off your must-visit list, things just got a lot more convenient. Combine any Peru itinerary with any Galápagos cruise and we'll pick up the cost of your flight between Lima and Quito. See page 90 for full details.

Shore excursions

Get more out of the Galápagos

Our Galápagos crews feature a cast of characters almost as diverse as the Galápagos islands themselves. Acknowledged experts in their fields (and pretty great people to hang around with to boot), your naturalist guides are always ready to answer any question you may have about the region and its wildlife.

Meet your Galápagos Team

Walter, Naturalist Guide

Q: What sets the G Adventures Galápagos program apart from the competition?

A: “Our adventurers arrive on board with all the information and details about our operations and options, as well as the support they get from G Adventures. We educate them about our goals and welcome them to join in, both in the Galápagos and all over the world.”

Omar, CEO

Q: What’s the best part of your job?

A: “Sharing my knowledge about the Galápagos islands and being an ambassador for G Adventures. It’s great to be able to lead responsible trips based on a solid corporate social philosophy in order to reach the satisfaction of our customers overall. It’s about trying to reach excellence.”

Blanca, Naturalist Guide

Q: What’s does “Lead With Service” mean to you?

A: “It means having the ability to lead from a position of social responsibility. Our customers expect and deserve the best from us. It is our job to try to achieve excellence.”

TOP You might start feeling more comfortable in flippers than in shoes. 1. Feeling crabby? Not this little guy. 2. To biologists he's Conolophus Subcristatus, but to us, he's "Igggy." 3. The Galápagos is a busy hub of take-offs and landings. 4. Strap on a snorkel and get closer to nature than you ever could back home.

Galápagos Land & Sea

All G Adventures Galápagos trips are a minimum of seven days (four nights in the Galápagos). We know that you need at least that long to enjoy what the islands have to offer. Look for this title in all of our available trips, and you'll be choosing to spend a night on shore in either San Cristobal or Baltra (depending on trip itinerary) before getting onboard your vessel.

Excursions & activities

Nobody comes to the Galápagos just to loaf around on deck all day. You're here to explore, and we do our best to get you off the ship as much as possible. We'll make two landings every day at different sites to keep things fresh and interesting.

Hiking & wildlife spotting

Not all of the Galápagos' natural attractions swim, scuttle, or fly. Active volcanoes abound here, and you'll get the chance to get up-close and personal with one during a hike on Isabela Island's Sierra Negra volcano crater and trekking across volcanic beaches in search of boobies, cormorants, and iguanas.

Snorkelling

In the Galápagos, the fun doesn't stop once you reach the shore. Getting out to swim and snorkel with the islands' exotic creatures – including sea turtles, hammerhead sharks, and sea lions – is one of the most amazing experiences you can have out here, and we do our best to ensure you spend as much time in the water as you can.

Uncommon experiences

The Galápagos Islands lend themselves to truly unique experiences. Drop off some mail at Post Office Bay on Floreana, study tortoises at the Charles Darwin Research Station on Santa Cruz, and pass through majestic Kicker Rock off San Cristóbal Island. Best of all, that's only the beginning.

INTRODUCING

JOURNEYS

National Geographic has been inspiring the world for more than 125 years, through exploration, science, and storytelling. G Adventures changes lives every day through the social and economic power of travel. Separately, we've always had similar values. Together, we're going to make great things happen.

National Geographic Journeys with G Adventures take you deeper into the cultures of the places we explore. We've created these itineraries to offer more meaningful encounters, interactions with smart local guides, and the freedom to roam, all within the structure and security of travelling in a small group.

So visit a rhino conservation program in Kenya, plant trees in a Costa Rican cloud forest with a biologist from a National Geographic-supported research centre, or walk the streets of Delhi with a former street youth. Get inspired and discover your own journey. The world is waiting.

A scenic view of a mountainous landscape. In the foreground, there are terraced stone ruins, likely an ancient civilization's site, built on a steep slope. The middle ground shows a deep valley with a river or stream winding through it. In the background, there are more mountains under a cloudy sky. The overall tone is majestic and historical.

IMAGINE

A new way to experience the world

A low-angle, upward-looking photograph of Whirling Dervishes performing a Sema ceremony. The dancers are wearing white robes and tall, conical felt hats. Their long, white sleeves are billowing out as they spin. The ceiling is a textured, light-colored dome with several small, glowing pendant lights. A circular medallion with Arabic calligraphy is visible on the wall in the background.

IMAGINE

Travel built on exploration, spontaneity, and storytelling

National Geographic Journeys deliver the ideal blend of must-see highlights, hands-on exploration, free time, and opportunities to forge true, human connections – with the people we visit, as well as those we meet along the way.

Galápagos Islands, explained

What lives where and what to look for

The Galápagos Islands are a natural treasure for the whole world to enjoy. Spread across 18 principal islands, three smaller ones and dozens of tiny islets are the creatures that inspired a young Charles Darwin to pen his theory of natural selection, which promptly turned the scientific community on its head. There's some really cool stuff going on here. Check out what lives where to ensure your cruise is everything you want it to be.

THE WEST ISLANDS

Isabela & Fernandina

The largest and youngest of the Galápagos Islands, the less-visited west islands contain some of the archipelago's largest colonies of birds and marine iguanas and boundless snorkelling opportunities. If you're looking for wildlife, come here first.

Things to do

- › Hike to the caldera of Sierra Negra Volcano
- › Visit massive colonies of seabirds and marine iguanas
- › Hike over lava fields and black lava flows
- › See the five largest volcanoes in the Galápagos

THE SOUTH ISLANDS

Floreana & Española

The south Galápagos Islands are home to top-notch snorkelling and quirky tradition. Volcanic bays and unusual land formations provide shelter for its cool looking birds and fish, and the charming simplicity of Post Office Bay always raises a grin or two.

Things to do

- › Relax on white-sand beaches on Gardiner Bay or scale the volcanic landforms
- › Post a letter from Post Office Bay, the visitor-supported hand-delivery mail system
- › Discover exotic marine life at Isolte Champion, a snorkeller's paradise

THE CENTRAL ISLANDS

Santiago, Santa Cruz & surrounding islands

The Galápagos' central islands are probably the best spot to witness the full scope of the diversity here, both on land and under the sea. Each of these small islands evolved in isolation from its neighbours, spawning an amazing collection of plants and animals.

Things to do

- › Come face-to-face with 100-year-old Galápagos tortoises in the lush green highlands of Santa Cruz
- › Enjoy the stunning view from Pinnacle Rock on Bartolomé Island
- › Explore hidden snorkelling spots and white-sand beaches on Santiago
- › Swim with playful sea lions in the waters off North Seymour

THE GALÁPAGOS ISLANDS

THE NORTH ISLAND Genovesa

It's hard to tear your eyes away from the water here, but you'll want to look skyward on Genovesa. Home to some outstanding bird life, this tiny rock is just as incredible under the waves, boasting a rich variety of aquatic animals that rival their winged neighbours.

Things to do

- > Snorkel the sunken crater of a volcano while keeping an eye out for sea turtles and reef sharks
- > Hike the trail that leads to El Barranco for a top-notch vantage point, passing massive colonies of seabirds along the way
- > Explore the largest nesting colonies of red-footed boobies and frigatebirds

THE EAST ISLAND San Cristóbal

You'll find just about every kind of creature imaginable (including snorkellers and scuba divers) in the clear waters off San Cristóbal. The land and sky are equally amazing, too, playing host to colonies of boobies, frigatebirds and volcanic landscapes.

Things to do

- > Sail through mysterious Kicker Rock and dive into the waters to check out the aquatic life
- > Hike at Punt Pitt in search of three distinct species of booby
- > Relax on the white-sand beaches of Cerro Brujo with the sea lions

TOP LEFT "If anyone wants me, I'll be in my trailer!" A pair of blue-footed boobies get ready for their close-up. 1. Probably showing off for some snorkellers. 2. Sea lions squabble over prime beachfront real estate on Isabela Island. 3. Digging for a snack in the native flora. 4. In many ways, the Galápagos is a fully-immersive aquarium (emphasis on the "immersive" part). 5. Another day, another mind-blowing encounter in nature's test kitchen.

River cruising

Get deeper into the destination

Sure, the wide-open ocean is a nice setting for a cruise, but what about those inland destinations far from the coast? Fear not, sailor. The G Adventures river cruising program opens up the interior of some of the world's greatest places via inventive itineraries down fabled waterways like the Amazon, the Ganges, the Mekong, and the canals that feed France's wine country. The water may be shallow, but the potential for adventure runs deep.

TOP Lighting up the Amazon, one riverboat at a time. 1. Is there anything better than fresh fruit? (Besides bacon, you know, bacon?). 2. Cruising through the Amazon. 3. Our boats will get you places you couldn't get otherwise. 4. Taking in Angkor Wat in Siem Reap.

The difference

The big-name places our river cruises cut through are some of the most exciting and interesting locales on earth. Come along with us and get deeper into these regions than you'd ever get on dry land.

Remote access

Explore the protected jungles and isolated communities of world-famous rivers. Seek out rare moments in nature on guided excursions, and get to know what life on the riverside is like from those who live there.

Local encounters

Rivers were the highways of the ancient world, and remain home to some of the most isolated communities. Discover how civilizations survive and thrive here through contact with local experts from tribal ceremonies to wine tastings.

Stellar CEOs and guides

Each cruise features a G Adventures CEO and guides, all locally trained and focused on developing your understanding of the wildlife, cultures, and ecosystems of the surrounding area.

Authentic river cruising feel

Each boat was specifically designed for cruising its unique environment. They come with windows in every cabin, large open decks, and, depending on where you are, a fleet of skills for excursions.

Amazon river cruising

Go deeper into the wild without sacrificing comfort

For millennia, the Amazon has been reluctant to reveal its secrets to outsiders; to this day, science still can't fully explain the staggering biodiversity of this lush tropical forest and the vast network of tributaries that feeds it. Curious? Step aboard the Amatista, our purpose-built riverboat, and journey from the source of the mighty Peruvian Amazon to Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve in search of answers. Prepare to be astounded.

TOP Our riverboat waterscape canoes will get you that much closer to the Amazon. 1. 56% less terrifying in person. 2. Cruising through the Amazon. 3. Queen cabin. 4. Dining room.

Experience the Amazon

There's simply no overstating the Amazon's importance to Peru in particular and humanity in general. The largest river in the world by several metrics, "the River Sea" has been integral to both human and animal life since the dawn of time. Our riverboat program puts its immensity on a personal level, and once you've cruised it with us, you'll never be the same.

Remote access

Explore the channels and tributaries of South America's most mystical of rivers to meet the region's inhabitants in their isolated riverside communities, places you'd never find on your own.

Meet them where they live

Step off the riverboat and dig in with the locals to experience what life along the Amazon is really like. Visit the markets, try out the local cuisine, and reinvigorate yourself through a special shaman-led spiritual healing session.

Make more of your downtime

Our riverboat is a comfortable ride, blessed with loads of outdoor spaces to unwind and watch life along the river drift past. A bevy of onboard experts are on-hand to add to your experience through engaging lectures on local wildlife and river culture.

Welcome aboard the Amatista

Cruise the Amazon in style and comfort

Our purpose-built riverboat grants you the freedom to explore the Amazon in comfort. Boasting roomy public spaces, a cheery upper deck, and stunning, take-it-all-in sightlines, the ship's outdoor spaces are the perfect spot from which to survey the greener-than-green rainforest and the dazzling array of colourful birdlife that inhabit it.

A hotel that goes where you do

Designed for life on the Amazon, the Amatista offers a comfortable floating-home-away-from-home with great sightlines, spacious dining facilities, a roomy observation deck and river views in each cabin.

Expert crew

The Amatista's crew is handpicked for their knowledge of the Amazon River, its people and wildlife. Formal lectures and informal chats open up the conversation about the diverse and fragile ecosystem that surrounds you.

Top-notch cuisine

Meals are served buffet-style and offer a healthy mix of international cuisine and Peruvian fare prepared from fresh local ingredients. Ganges river cruising

A river that connects the past to the future

Sacred to Hindus and essential to the everyday life of millions of people, the Ganges is arguably the most important river in the world. An ancient highway that connected kingdoms, its shores are lined with majestic palaces, historic battlegrounds, and remote villages that offer up a slice of Indian life you won't find in the big cities. Head down the Ganges with us aboard our spiffy riverboat and discover wonders you never knew you were missing.

TOP The Varuna cruising through the Ganges. 1. Lounge area. 2. The Varuna deck is a comfortable place to digest everything you've seen today. 3. Whether on a riverboat or rickshaw, we're always cruising. 4. Double-occupancy cabin interior. 5. The sight of this Rajmahal temple will remind you why you love to travel.

Experience the Ganges

Stretching from the Himalayas all the way to the Bay of Bengal, the Ganges is central to life in India in virtually every sense. Sacred to Hindus and depended upon by millions of people for trade, its fertile shores helped spawn some of history's proudest empires. Our Ganges riverboat program brings the beauty and majesty of the river and its surrounding communities to life. Step aboard and discover India's story straight from the source.

Tradition comes alive

The rural village of Matiari is famed for its long tradition of brass-working. On our stop here, you'll meet some of the artisans who keep that tradition alive today, and get to watch them beat out, shape, engrave, and polish brass water pots by hand.

Explore the Temple City

In Kalna, you'll swap the boat for a rickshaw and travel to the gorgeous 108 Shiva Temple Complex, an engineering marvel of 108 temples that stand in two concentric circles. For the full effect, stand in the centre of the complex and admire the incredible sight.

Roots of the Taj

The historic city of Rajmahal is home to dozens of ruined palaces, forts, and mosques reclaimed by nature. It's also the childhood home of Shah Jehan, the fifth Mughal Emperor and builder of the Taj Mahal and one of India's greatest champions of architecture. As you'll see, he had plenty to be inspired by here.

Welcome aboard the Varuna

Your envoy to the Ganges

Designed specifically to navigate the twists and turns of the Ganges, the Varuna opens up a whole new side of India to G Adventures travellers. A roomy 40m (130 ft) of floating comfort with a spacious balcony and great sightlines, she's the perfect ambassador to India's most celebrated waterway.

A lounge with a riverfront view

The whole point of adventure travel is to get out and explore, but don't be surprised if you have a hard time tearing yourself away from the boat. Plush seating, plenty of outdoor space, a groovy salon, and more will make going ashore harder than you suspect.

Fine dining on the move

Just because you're on the boat doesn't mean you can't expect a good meal. The Varuna's onboard kitchen and expert staff are at the ready to deliver a stellar array of meals. Expect a mix of traditional Indian cuisine and Western favourites.

Great sights everywhere you look

The best part of riverboat travel is being able to watch the fascinating world you're travelling through drift by while someone else does the steering. The Varuna's interior spaces feature large windows and panoramic views so you won't miss a thing even when you're inside.

Mekong river cruising

Exploring the last great wild river

A thriving trade route for six different countries for thousands of years, the Mekong remains one of the few big rivers in the world that refuses to be civilized. Rich with wildlife (only the Amazon is more biologically diverse) and lined with everything from small towns to that stunning Angkor Wat temple complex, the Mekong's many twists and turns have helped it retain its wild character. You'll need a great guide and a sturdy boat to get the most out the Mekong. Fortunately, we've got both.

TOP The Toum Tiou II cruising down the Mekong. 1. If there's one thing a buffet satisfies, it's hunger. Hunger from adventuring especially. 2. Catch a stunning Mekong sunset from the equally stunning Toum Tiou II's deck. 3. The double-occupancy cabin you'll barely spend time in. 4. Dining in style.

Experience the Mekong

Spanning six countries and touching millions of lives daily, the Mekong is Asia's seventh-longest river and arguably its most important. An important trade route, the Mekong also boasts the widest diversity of wildlife of any waterway save for the Amazon, and is home to some of the world's largest freshwater fish. While beautiful, the Mekong is notoriously difficult to navigate. Come along with us and see a side of Asia few ever will.

History made by hand

The fishing port of Kampong Chhnang is known for its earthenware, and how it's made has barely changed over the centuries. Here, you'll stop in at a brick factory and watch the fascinating production process before witnessing a pottery-making demonstration from skilled local artisans.

Phnom Penh by cyclo

Cambodia's capital is one of the busiest and most intriguing cities in all of Southeast Asia, and there's no better way to move through it than by cyclo. Settle in to a traditional cycle rickshaw and move through the streets and riverside roads of this fascinating town with the help of a driver provided by a local NGO that assists the city's poor.

Culture aplenty

From the pier of My Tho, you'll leave the riverboat and travel to Thoi Son Island with the help of local boats. The island is best known for its coconut trade, and you'll get an insider's view of the importance of this fruit to the region and be treated to a special tasting, too.

Welcome aboard the Toum Tiou II

Your floating abode

Built with a traditional look, the Toum Tiou II adds a new dimension to exploring the natural and man-made wonders of this part of the world. Named for the “Cambodian Romeo and Juliet,” the boat features elegant colonial décor, spacious public areas, and a stunning sun deck.

Teak mystique

Should you find it difficult to leave your cabin, don't be alarmed. The feeling is completely normal. The Toum Tiou II is a comfortable place to stay, with central air and Cambodian teak accents that lend it an elegant appeal.

A great meal always nearby

The Toum Tiou II's kitchen is famed for its cuisine, prepared right on the ship by a staff of expert cooks. Meals are a nice blend of Asian and Western fare, and you're always welcome to a cup of coffee or tea on the house.

A bicycle built for you

Part of the experience of riverboat cruising is having the chance to get off the boat and stretch your legs somewhere new every day. We've brought along a collection of bicycles for you to use free-of-charge to make exploring even more pleasant.

Burgundy canal cruising

What pairs best with red? Water.

Practically tailor-made for pleasure cruising, the network of rivers and centuries-old canals that crisscross Burgundy, France's fabled wine-producing département, are simply the best way to explore central France on the sly. Life unfolds at a different pace in this pastoral part of the world, and nowhere is that more obvious than from the deck of a piloted canal barge (or peniche) that doubles as your floating hotel.

TOP She might be the best Daniele you've ever met. 1. Riding through wine country. 2. Croissants for breakfast onboard. 3. As if you're going to go to France and not taste some wine. Or all of the wine. We won't judge. 4. Dining in style.

Experience Burgundy

Burgundy is famous for its tasty wines and gorgeous scenery, but we've always felt that its canal system was deserving of more ink. The Burgundy canal barge makes the most of the intricate waterways that crisscross the region, delivering you to tiny villages and idyllic slices of landscape that you'd never see from the road. Plus, there's great wine and food to be had just about everywhere. Your mouth has already packed its bags. Join it.

Quaintness galore

You've seen them on postcards and in travel magazines forever, now's your chance to explore one of the little towns and villages that dot France's fabulous winemaking region. Each one is unique and oozes its own special charm, and when you travel by riverboat, the journey to find them is as pleasant as can be.

Cycle of life

Sure, the bucolic scenery is nice to look at, but it's even better when you get out and explore it yourself. In Côte de Beaune, you'll head ashore, mount a complimentary bicycle, and pedal through the vineyards with frequent stops for wine-based refreshment along the route.

Wine, all the time

As one of France's main wine-producing regions, Burgundy is practically a holy site for oenophiles. Step off the canal boat for a spell and spend some time tasting the area's rich and varied wines, investigate its legions of underground wine cellars, and explore its many vineyards.

Welcome aboard the Daniele

More than just a pretty face

This daring little boat is tailor-made for a region as picturesque as Burgundy. Cozy and charming, the Daniele has room for a maximum of 22 passengers, keeping the experience intimate and relaxed throughout.

Relaxation incarnate

The riverboat is more than a mere means of conveyance; it's your home for the duration of your tour. And goodness, what a nice home it is! When you're not ashore, curl up on the deck and catch some rays or slip into the onboard Jacuzzi. "Adventure" should always be this laidback.

Great views, inside and out

The Daniele's communal spaces are one of the boat's major highlights. Unwind with a refreshing drink at the spacious bar, lounge it up on the sundeck, gather around and swap stories on the barbecue deck – the toughest part of your downtime will be deciding where to spend it.

Mellow vélo

Cruising Burgundy by canal boat is one of the best ways to see this part of the world. The next best? By bicycle, of course! We've stowed a selection of touring vélos (bicycles) on the boat that you and your fellow travellers are free to use whenever the mood strikes.

Welcome to Sailing

Wherever there's water, there's us

No matter how far inland we live, there's something about the sea that calls to us. It's wide. It's deep. It's blue. It's a canvas upon which we can paint adventures we otherwise can't do on dry land. Okay, so you probably don't have your own private yacht waiting to spirit you away to distant shores. But we do. Plenty of 'em. (And a couple of catamarans, too.) Climb aboard and explore the Greek Islands, the Turquoise Coast, the Adriatic, the Andaman Sea, and other exotic places with a small group of fellow adventurers and a skipper who knows your destination's every isolated cove, pristine beach, and secluded coastal village. Billions of years ago, we emerged from the sea. Isn't it time you went back?

Europe

High seas by way of sailing yachts

Whether it's exploring the undiscovered bays of Croatia's Dalmatian Coast, discovering the isolated beaches of Turkey, or sailing past the whitewashed villages of Greece, seeing the ancient shores of Europe via nimble sailing boats is an unforgettable journey.

See pages 112-121.

The Caribbean

Explore pirate coves and hidden lands

Break away from the typical tourist tracks and witness the Caribbean the way seafaring explorers – and pirates! – have for centuries. Experiencing island life from the back of a comfortable catamaran sailing yacht ought to be on everyone's must-do list.

See pages 122-127.

Thailand

Escape the resorts via catamaran

After sailing the glittering Andaman Sea and the gorgeous Gulf of Thailand all day, you've got to believe that Thai sailors go to sleep each night wearing the hugest grins. And with our exclusive catamaran sailing program being the best of its kind in Thailand, you will, too.

See pages 128-131.

The Maldives

Venture aboard a traditional dhoni boat

Our adventures in this far-flung locale are suitably bold: exploring volcanic atolls, snorkelling the turquoise waters, admiring coral reefs teeming with tropical fish of every hue, and loads of time devoted solely to lazing it up on blazing-white beaches.

See pages 132-133.

TOP If she's this happy already, wait until she sees the Greek scenery behind her. 1. Sailing through Phang Nga Bay. 2. "Wait, am I steering or is she?" 3. Dinner on a sailboat at sunset. Otherwise known as the most relaxing moment of your life. 4. By the end of your stay, you'll understand why some people choose to live on boats.

The @ difference

Your yacht doubles as your hotel, which means you'll only have to unpack once. That gives you more time to do what you came to do - island-hop and have a blast.

Low cost, high value

By combining transport and hotel into one handsome yacht, we can afford to keep costs low. No need for expensive day tours and ferries—our tours are flexible enough to ensure you get the most bang for your budget.

Innovative itineraries

Your skipper always has a sail plan, but it's not hard-and-fast. Flexible itineraries allow us to set out for the best beaches and most out-of-the-way little places so far out of the way other travellers—and even some locals—won't have heard of them.

What you see is what you sail

Unlike other operators, who assign yachts depending on group numbers and availability, our fleet is comprised of exclusive boats of similar make and size. What does this mean to you? You can book with the confidence that the boats you see on these pages are the ones you'll sail.

Great skippers

Your skipper will share the hidden gems and help you explore the local side of the islands and ports we visit. Our skippers are fully licensed professional sailors with deep and comprehensive knowledge of the local waters and customs.

Take the helm

Aspiring sailors can learn the ropes, receive some pointers from our expert skipper and even take the wheel themselves. You don't have to sail, of course; this is a pleasure boat, after all. Lounge it up and let your shipmates do all the work!

Unpack once

Your hotel goes everywhere you do. There's no need to think about where you'll be staying next, and when to re-pack your bags.

European sailing

Small ships, enormous adventures

There's simply no better way to get the most out of Europe's island-speckled shorelines than from a nimble, intimate sailing yacht. Each of our yachts has its own distinct character reflective of the waters it traverses, but they're all constructed along similar lines. Take a look before you go.

Meet your skippers

Vince, Skipper/CEO

Q: What's the best part of your job?

A: "The freedom of life at sea and the spontaneous days of not knowing where we are off to next. Every day is different—it's a new way of living every day!"

Dave, Skipper/CEO

Q: What does "Lead With Service" mean to you?

A: "It's about finding out each of our travellers' needs, wants and dreams and figuring out how to make them come true with a personal touch. We do our best to help our travellers create their own tour, following the wind and the dreams of the group."

Toby, Skipper/CEO

Q: What sets the G Adventures European Sailing program apart from the competition?

A: "Our skippers, definitely. We deliver the best experience we can and don't use fixed routes, which gives us the freedom to cater to our groups' needs. We have warm relationships with the locals, which helps us get deeper into island life."

TOP Our knowledgeable CEOs will always steer you in the right direction. 1. Spying the coast of Syros by sailboat. 2. Your floating saloon in the Adriatic. 3. Harmony 52 cabin sleeping quarters. 4. Dubrovnik's imposing Bokar fortress. 5. Just another gorgeous Mediterranean sunset. No big deal.

The @ difference

Until you've sailed the Greek Islands, Croatia, and Turkey aboard a small yacht, you haven't really seen them. Here's how we do it:

Small groups

We believe that small is best when it comes to group size on our yachts. No more than nine people will be on any boat, including the skipper.

Adventuresome days

Squeeze the most adventure out of every port stop. With no fixed itineraries, you're free to explore on your own terms and at your own pace.

Relaxing nights

By night, our boats anchor in beautiful bays and picturesque harbours. Sleep in your bunk or camp out on the deck under a blanket of stars.

Great skippers

Join your fully-licensed skipper/CEO on optional excursions around the islands—they'll share with you the hidden gems and explore the local side of the islands and ports we visit.

Our yachts

Living space is optimized, which means that more of the boat is open for everyone to enjoy. Cabins are allotted by the skipper based on the gender and passenger make-up of the group.

Sail Croatia

Rugged beauty abounds on the Dalmatian Coast

Bookended by Split – a UNESCO-protected World Heritage site – and the ancient city of Dubrovnik, this sailing adventure offers travellers the chance to moor up on undiscovered bays and isolated beaches. While in port, step ashore and sample the many waterside cafés and restaurants. Drink in the sights and scents of a beautiful Croatian evening while sampling authentic cuisine and local drink. Come find this underexplored paradise before word gets around.

What's up in the Adriatic?

Zlatni Rat

This idyllic pebbled beach on the southern shore of Brač is constantly being reshaped by the wind and the tides. Ask nicely and your skipper might show you his favourite top-secret beach.

Seafood and eat it

Hang out with the fishermen who ply their trade on these waters, then dig in to delicious feasts made from what they pulled out of the ocean that day.

Great escapes

While you're in the area, be sure to make time to check out the palace of Diocletian in Split, the purported birthplace of Marco Polo on Korčula, and the flat-out gorgeous Mljet National Park. You'll be glad you did.

Outdoor fun

Mix a little exercise into your adventure and try your hand at kayaking, cave exploration, and hiking along the Dalmatian Coast's beautiful network of trails.

Dubrovnik and Split

These two UNESCO-protected cities have stood watch over the coast for centuries and are renowned for their unique mix of gothic, Renaissance, and baroque architecture.

Sail the Greek Islands

Ancient shores, timeless adventures

Seemingly scattered amongst the waves by the gods themselves, the Greek isles were made to sail. You've seen their whitewashed villages and azure waters a zillion times on postcards and travel brochures, but even the greatest images are no match for the real thing. Exploring Greece by sea puts you in touch with a side of this country you'd otherwise miss, giving you the chance to see where history (and myth) happened, meet the present-day inhabitants and, of course, soak up as much sun as you can.

What's up in the Aegean?

Santorini

Arguably the most famous of the Greek Islands, Santorini has the looks to match the hype. Marvel at the semi-submerged volcanic caldera and the island's stunning cliffs.

Naxos

Naxos doesn't depend on travellers for its livelihood like some of the other Greek Islands, but it loves visitors just the same. Take an optional walk and investigate the Venetian architecture, ancient distilleries, and some of Greece's oldest churches.

Mykonos

A popular spot for jet-setters since the 1950s, the nightlife on this Cycladic island is legendary. Feel free to hit the town; we'll keep the yacht in the harbour until you get back.

Homer's tomb, Ios

The earthly remains of the author of the Odyssey, that most epic of Greek epic poems, lie on Ios, a justifiably relaxing resting place for a guy who logged so many travel miles.

Athens

Some of our Greek Islands Sailing tours include a day in Athens at the beginning or end, allowing you the chance to explore the archaeological sites and museums of the mainland before you head home.

TOP LEFT Steady as she goes, mateys: Your skipper knows the islands better than most locals do.

1. After all the partying in Mykonos, you may feel the need to check out a church.
2. "How's my hair?"
3. Just chillin' in Naxos.

Sail Turkey

The ancient coast with the most

When it comes to beautiful coastlines and geographic wonders, it's hard to beat the Turkish Coast. This is a land built for heroes; Alexander the Great and St Paul both walked the trails that line these shores; Marc Antony loved it here so much he bestowed the whole region on his beloved Cleopatra as a wedding present. There are still many off-the-beaten-path treasures waiting here – including some of the world's most stunning white-sand beaches – and they can all be discovered from our state-of-the-art catamaran.

What's up on the Turkish Coast?

History lessons by the sea

Not only is the Turkish coast among the most beautiful in the world, it's also seen more history and myth than just about anywhere. Explore the ancient towns, secluded villages, the mysterious rock tombs of Daylan, and the ruins at Knidos.

Freedom to roam

Our Turkey Sailing itineraries are designed with free spirits like you in mind. While we offer a degree of structure, we'll also leave you to your own devices to snorkel, hike or lay about on the beach to your heart's content.

Not big; not small; just right.

Our Turkish catamarans are among the smallest vessels in our fleet, so group sizes are purposely kept to a minimum. One of the bigger advantages of a smaller group is everyone gets their turn to direct the day's course.

Food, glorious food

Don't know much about Turkish cuisine? Roll the best bits of Central Asian, Balkan, Mediterranean, and Middle Eastern dishes together and serve. Our itineraries deliver a solid mix of meals at established restaurants and out-of-the-way places in coastal villages that even the locals don't know about.

TOP Castles on the coastline: Sailing Bodrum Fort.

1. Marmaris Harbour provides a compelling argument for staying up all night.

ITINERARY

When it comes to beautiful coastlines and natural geographic wonders, it's hard to beat the Turkish Riviera. On this sailing adventure, you'll cruise along the area known as the Lycian Way, a popular destination with a long-standing maritime culture. That said, there are still many off-the-beaten-path treasures waiting to be discovered and you'll have the perfect opportunity to do so in between snorkelling, swimming in open water, relaxing in mud baths, and enjoying Turkey's beaches. Living aboard our state-of-the-art catamaran means you'll never have to go without.

DAY 1 FETHIYE Join the group at 5pm for a welcome meeting and safety briefing aboard the catamaran. Enjoy the first night in the port of Fethiye.

Relax on board or spend the evening exploring this ancient Lycian town. DAYS 2-9 SOUTHERN TURKISH COAST Enjoy eight breathtaking days exploring the beautiful and rugged coast of Turkey. Escape to secluded beaches, swim in crystal-clear turquoise waters, and marvel at ruins from ancient civilizations. The skipper will help make the most of the tiny seaside villages by recommending optional activities and sailing in quiet coves and desolate anchorages. Gaze at the mysterious rock tombs in Dalyan. Hike through the ruin sites at Knidos. Spend a mellow afternoon sunbathing on the beach on Datca or go swimming in the turquoise waters. Enjoy local meals throughout the journey at small local taverns and be greeted by smiles from the friendly locals. DAY 10 BODRUM Sail past the castle of St Peter and the sheer cliffs of Mersinçik to reach Turkey's sailing hub of Bodrum. Caribbean Sailing

Wherever there's water, there's us

Comprised of over 7,000 islands (most of which are so small there's barely enough room for a palm tree and a beach blanket), the Caribbean is a region defined by its differences as much as its commonalities. Yes, the beaches are incredible. Yes, the waters are ridiculously blue. Yes, the rhythm is always up-tempo and the party goes all night. But contrast is the real spice of life in this part of the world.

Cuba is all rum, rumba, and razzle-dazzle with a homespun, attitude-free charm, while the British Virgin Islands exude a laidback calm punctuated with the occasional pirate chantey. Culture, relaxation, nightlife, and adventure await in every secluded bay and undiscovered barrio here, and your skipper/CEO holds the treasure map.

TOP Turquoise waters, palm trees and beaches on the horizon - what more could you want? 1. Cabin interior. 2. Dining area. 3. Explore a different side of the Caribbean. 4. It's always sunny on Tortola.

The @ difference

There's a reason why Caribbean sunsets come to mind when you think of idyllic getaways – and we believe there's no better way to see them than from a catamaran. Here's what else to expect:

Locals know

Skip the preamble and dive right on into the joyous regional culture with the help of a Skipper/CEO who knows what's where and how to get there.

Get away from everyday resorts

We put a different spin on "all-inclusive" by getting you out of the walled resorts and out into the countryside to meet the people who live here, and set you loose to experience the local culture first-hand.

Secluded destinations

Our regular stopping grounds are far enough off the beaten path that you won't be fighting crowds of tourists for that one perfect slice of beach.

Sail Cuba

All-inclusive done right

“Cuba travel” and “all-inclusive” are virtually synonymous. Hey, if you can’t beat ‘em, join ‘em (and then beat ‘em anyway). Fear not, dear traveller; our Cuba sailing program puts our own, unique spin on “all-inclusive” by getting you out into the countryside to meet the people who live here and setting you loose to experience the local culture first-hand. Better still, your ship’s chef is an expert in the local cuisine, and knows how to whip up tasty authentic fare from local sources.

Cuba catamaran

With room for 14 passengers and a crew of three, our Cuban catamaran hits the sweet spot between spacious and cozy. Stylish looks spread across 25m (82 ft) of twin-hulled sexiness, you’ll find plenty of interior and exterior space to lounge about when you’re not exploring Cuba’s shores or diving into her crystal-clear waters.

What’s up in the Cuban Caribbean?

Ride in style

Your home at sea on our Cuba Sailing trips is a smooth-riding, stable, and spacious catamaran. Lose yourself in a good book while soaking up the Caribbean sun on deck, or slip into the water for a snorkel just about anywhere you like.

Locals know

Skip the preamble and dive right on into Cuba’s joyous culture with the help of a CEO who knows what’s where and how to get there. While others are trapped inside resorts, you’ll be experiencing Cuba as it’s meant to be.

Live it up or loaf it up

Our Cuba Sailing tours work great on their own or as add-ons to other G Adventures tours within the region.

Whether you make your time at sea an adventure or opt to take it slow and soak up the culture is entirely up to you.

A hideaway from the everyday

Cuba can be a difficult country to get to know, but once it’s embraced you, it never, ever lets go. Most visitors confine themselves to the resorts and never get out to experience this colourful island as it truly is. Not us. Our connected CEOs know where to go and can’t wait to take you along for the ride, whether it’s by navigating the bustling streets and alleys of Havana or searching for an untouched beach along the coast. Cuba is the sort of place that doesn’t just get under your skin; it seeps into your bones. All you have to do is let it in.

Sail the British Virgin Islands

Pirates, palm trees, and peace

If you're a sailor of any stripes, the British Virgin Islands are no doubt near the top of your must-sail list. This sunny stretch of islands has called to mariners for centuries, and its allure has never wavered. Why? Maybe it's the balmy weather or the gorgeous mountains that tumble down into seemingly endless beaches. Maybe it's the allure of the tiny, deserted islands that can only be accessed by boat or the out-of-the-way snorkelling spots that feel all your own. Maybe it's the adventuresome pirate spirit that permeates all aspects of life out here. Maybe you should quit reading this and come find out for yourself.

BVI catamaran

Davy Jones wouldn't give us the keys to the Flying Dutchman, so we went with the next best thing: a cozy catamaran. A handsome 12m (40 ft) of double-hulled swiftness, our catamaran handles just like a yacht in case you decide to take a turn at the helm. There's only room for eight on board, which means a higher incredibleness-per-traveller ratio than ought to be legally allowed.

What's up in the BVIs?

Small groups, big adventures

Our BVI catamaran is one of the smallest vessels in our worldwide fleet, but it's anything but cramped. We keep our group sizes small so everyone has enough room to move about and bond together.

Get yer "yaaargh" on

These islands were home to many a scurvy dog in their time, and on Norman Island, it feels like they never left. Bask on the beach, dreaming of buried treasure or sidle on up to the floating bar to tilt a pint o' grog at a joint that takes piratey silliness very seriously.

Cast of characters

There's something about the Caribbean that brings out the best (and weirdest) in people. These islands are filled with unusual characters, and your CEO will help you meet them all.

Do it your way

Our BVI sailing program features plenty of built-in activities as well as more than enough time to do your own thing. Whether you opt to hit the clubs, hike the mountains, laze it up on the beach, or try your hand at sailing, your days (and nights) are as full as you decide to make them.

Thai Sailing

Island-hopping via catamaran across the Andaman and the Gulf

Most countries would be satisfied with just a single stretch of dazzling coastline. Not Thailand. Bordering both the glittering Andaman Sea and the gorgeous Gulf of Thailand, you've got to believe that Thai sailors go to sleep each night wearing the hugest grins. And after you've spent a few days here, jetting from island to impossibly beautiful island on an exclusive catamaran with us, you will be, too.

TOP Andaman on demand: The Thai coast always delivers, day or night. 1. The experience will fill your heart; the food will fill your belly. 2. Thailand Koh Chang Beach boats. 3. Island-hopping on a catamaran. Thai it, you'll love it. 4. Opt for a taste of tradition with Thailand's long-tail boats.

The @ difference

Thailand is such an amazing place to explore that you'll want to devote your full attention to it. Here's what we'll be taking care of while you enjoy yourself.

Expert skippers and crew

With a fully licensed skipper, cook, and a dedicated CEO, we've got everything covered. A three-person crew with dedicated roles means that each member has the time and freedom to do what they do best. In your CEO's case, that's making your trip the best it can be.

Thai food on tap

Thai takeout at home is great. Thai food prepared by a skilled chef and savoured on the deck of a catamaran in the glorious waters of Thailand itself? That's something else. Using fresh ingredients, your personal chef will whip up delicious feasts for you every day while you explore the islands.

Escape the resorts

Thailand is a pretty popular place, which is a polite way of saying it can get a little crowded. Our catamaran sailing program is the best of its kind in Thailand, and offers a great way to intimately explore secluded bays and out-of-the-way islands far away from the maddening crowds.

Dynamic itineraries

Thailand is a fantastic country to explore, both by sea and on land. We don't believe that you should have to choose one over the other. We offer full week-long sailing adventures and shorter four-day add-ons that match up perfectly with our land-based Thai trips. Don't miss out; do both!

Remote access

Flexible itineraries allow us to seek out the snorkelling spots and out-of-the-way islands even the locals don't

Thai Catamaran

A vessel as gorgeous as the islands themselves (well, almost)

With two hulls instead of one, catamarans offer a unique twist on the traditional cruise experience. Our 25m (82 ft) vessels handle like yachts (as you'll find out should you opt to take over for the skipper for a spell), and with just 14 passengers spread across ample lounging-about space, they offer a comfortable and intimate way to travel.

The @ difference

The Maldives are among the most relaxing, tranquil places on the planet. Here's a glimpse of what you'll get up to out here with us:

Traditional dhoni boat

This traditional fishing boat is as essential to Maldivian identity as the paddle steamer is to the Mississippi River. The motorized one you'll sail with us has been modernized and equipped with all the amenities you need on the inside and the characteristic look and feel of the real thing on the outside. It comes ready with snorkelling equipment, basic fishing gear, and room for eight lucky passengers.

Little groups, big adventures

With room for just eight passengers, the dhoni is a cozy way to get around the Maldives. Smaller group sizes means you forge closer bonds with your shipmates and get more out of the experience together. It really does feel like a personal cruise through paradise with some of the best friends you haven't met yet.

Fresh fare, everywhere

As you'd expect from an island nation 400km (249 mi) away from the mainland, Maldivian seafood is top notch. Your dhoni comes with its very own onboard chef who will prepare delicious meals in the local style for you every day.

Any such changes are at the discretion of G Adventures. G Adventures will make suitable alternative arrangements, at no extra cost to the Client, for the continuation of the Product tour and will, where appropriate, compensate the Client for the difference between the services to be supplied under the contract and those supplied. If G Adventures is unable to make arrangements as described above for reasons other than the refusal of the Client to accept such arrangements, G Adventures will, where appropriate, provide the Client with equivalent transport back to the Client's place of departure or to another place to which the Client and G Adventures have mutually agreed. The Client acknowledges that they must have reasonable financial resources available to cover incidental expenses on every Product on which they travel, whether or not they arise from a change in the Product itinerary or from generally participating in the Product or travel, and that G Adventures shall not be liable for any Client's failure to prepare for such expenses and unforeseen circumstances which may arise during such travel and participation in the Product(s). G Adventures will not be liable for any indirect and/or consequential losses associated with any changes to a Product's itinerary.

Changes made by the Client: Client is responsible for ensuring that information provided to G Adventures in making their booking is accurate, up-to-date, and correct. Bookings are not transferable to other Products. Any changes to the travelling Client's name on any Product booking are subject to G Adventures' approval. Any changes to a booking will depend on availability and will be on a request basis and subject to G Adventures' approval. Any extra costs incurred or payable by the Client for a booking will be charged to the Client along with an administrative fee. No changes are permitted to any booking within 10 days of departure of the first Product to depart under the applicable booking.

Where the Client is prevented through reasons completely beyond such Client's control from proceeding with a Product tour as booked the Client may, if possible, transfer his/her Product booking to a person who satisfies all the conditions applicable to the Product tour, provided that the Client gives notice to G Adventures of Client's intention to transfer no less than 14 days before the date when departure is due to take place. Where such a transfer is made, the transferring Client and the transferee Client shall be jointly and severally liable to G Adventures for payment of the price of the Product (or, if part of the price has been paid, for payment of the balance) and for any additional costs arising from such transfer.

16. CLIENT'S ACCEPTANCE OF RISK

The Client acknowledges that the nature of the Products is adventurous and may involve a significant amount of risk to Clients' health and/or safety. There are dangers inherent to adventure travel generally and Client acknowledges they have considered such risks to health and safety and are willing to assume it to the full extent. The Client hereby assumes all such risk and does hereby release G Adventures and G Adventures Ltd. (collectively, for the purposes of this section, "G Adventures") from all claims and causes of action arising from any losses, damages or injuries or death resulting from these risks inherent in travel, including adventure travel specifically, visiting foreign destinations, and participating in adventurous activities such as those included in Product itineraries. Standards of hygiene, accommodation and transport in some countries where Tours take place are often lower than comparable standards than what the Client may reasonably expect in their home country or region.

The Client acknowledges that the degree and nature of personal risk involved depends on the nature of the Product booked, or the location(s) in which such Product operates, and that there may be a significant degree of personal risk involved in travel on the Product, particularly if such Product involves physical activities, travel to remote locations, carriage by watercraft, participation in extreme sports or high-risk activities, or travel to countries with under-developed infrastructure. The Client acknowledges she or he has considered the potential risks, dangers and challenges in light of their own personal capabilities and needs, and expressly assumes the risks associated with travel under such conditions. The Client acknowledges and agrees that G Adventures is not responsible for providing information or guidance to the Client with respect to local customs, weather conditions, special safety challenges or laws in effect in any locations where Products are operated.

The Client must at all times strictly comply with all applicable laws and regulations of all countries and regions visited on the applicable Tour. Should the Client fail to comply with the above or commit any illegal act when on the Tour or, in the opinion of the G Adventures (acting reasonably), the Client's behavior is causing or is likely to cause danger, distress or material annoyance to others, G Adventures may terminate that Client's travel arrangements on any Product immediately without any liability on G Adventures' part and the Client will not be entitled to any refund for unused or missed services or costs incurred resulting from the termination of the travel arrangements, including without limitation, return travel, accommodations, meals or incidentals. Clients agree that they are responsible for any costs incurred by G Adventures, G Adventures' Third Party Suppliers or G Adventures' partners, as a result of damage, destruction, theft, or excess cleaning fees caused or occasioned by the Client while on a Tour. Clients also agree to indemnify and hold G Adventures harmless to this kind of staff of the accommodation, transportation service, or facility (as appropriate) and to G Adventures' representatives as soon as possible upon discovery by the Client.

Client agrees to take all prudent measures in relation to their own safety while on any G Adventures Tour, including, but not limited to, the proper use of safety devices such as seatbelts, harnesses, and helmets, and obeying all posted signs and warnings in relation to Client health and safety. Neither G Adventures nor its Third Party Suppliers (as hereinafter defined) shall be liable for any failure on the Client's part to comply safety instructions or recommendations of G Adventures or its Third Party Suppliers.

Client agrees to bring any complaints regarding a Product to G Adventures as soon as possible in order to provide G Adventures with the opportunity to address such complaint properly. Client agrees to inform the Tour Leader or other designated G Adventures representative at the earliest opportunity, or to the G Adventures Local Office Manager at the earliest opportunity, of any complaint. Tour, or to G Adventures' Customer Service department directly. G Adventures assumes no liability for complaints that are not properly brought to the attention of G Adventures with sufficient notice for G Adventures to resolve or attempt to resolve any Client complaints. Any complaint made after the completion of a Tour must be received in writing by the Client or its agents or directly within 30 days of the end of the Tour in question.

17. G ADVENTURES IS NOT LIABLE FOR ITS THIRD PARTY SUPPLIERS

G Adventures makes arrangements with accommodation providers, activity providers, travel agents, tour operators, local companies, transport operators, shore excursion operators, tour and local guides, and other independent parties ("Third Party Suppliers") to provide you with the travel services and other services you purchase or which form the component parts of your product Tour(s). Third Party Suppliers may also engage the services of local operators and/or sub-contractors for the provision of travel services that form part of a product Tour(s). Although G Adventures takes all reasonable care in selecting Third Party Suppliers, G Adventures is unable to control Third Party Suppliers and do not supervise Third Party Suppliers and therefore cannot be responsible for their acts or omissions. The travel services and other services provided by Third Party Suppliers are subject to the conditions imposed by these Third Party Suppliers and their liability is limited by their tariffs, conditions of carriage, tickets and vouchers and international conventions and agreements that govern the provision of their services. These conditions may limit or exclude liability of the Third Party Supplier. Client acknowledges that Third Party Suppliers operate in compliance with the applicable laws of the countries in which they provide services and G Adventures does not warrant that any Third Party Supplier is in compliance with the laws of the Client's country of residence, or any other jurisdiction.

To the fullest extent permissible by law, G Adventures is not liable and will not assume responsibility for any claims, losses, damages, costs or expenses arising out of inconvenience, loss of enjoyment, upset, disappointment, distress or frustration, whether physical or mental, resulting from the act or omission of any party other than G Adventures and its employees. For clarity, the Client agrees that neither G Adventures nor any carrier will be held liable for the acts or omissions, whether negligent or otherwise, of Third Party Suppliers or any independent contractors.

18. OPTIONAL EXTRAS

Optional Extras (which for the purposes of this section mean any activity, transportation, meal, or any other product or service not expressly included in the Product description or itinerary, or in the price of the Product) do not form part of the Product. Client agrees that any assistance given by G Adventures' Tour Leaders or other G Adventures representatives in arranging, selecting, or booking any Optional Extras is purely at the request of the Client, and G Adventures makes no warranties regarding such information and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever arising from any Optional Extras or participation therein by any Client, or any information provided by any G Adventures representative or Tour Leader regarding any Optional Extras. Accordingly, the Client hereby releases G Adventures from all claims and causes of action arising from any damages, loss of enjoyment, inconvenience, or injuries related to or arising from participation in or booking of Optional Extras.

The Vessel used in Expedition Trips carries onboard service providers, which may include medical staff, spa personnel, and/or entertainers who operate as independent contractors. Their services and products are charged as optional extras. Neither G Adventures nor the Carrier is responsible for their performance or products. These contractors contract directly with the Client for their services. Neither G Adventures nor the Carrier is responsible for any such person's acts or omissions in providing goods or services to the Client.

Shore Excursions on Expedition Trips are subject to their own set of Terms and Conditions, separate and apart from these Terms, and may be reserved after an Expedition Trip has been booked and confirmed. All Clients must ensure that they are fit and healthy to undertake Shore Excursions.

Any Client using such services or activities shall be deemed to agree and consent that any liability for any loss, damages, death, personal injury, illness, emotional distress, mental suffering or psychological injury or loss of or damage to property shall be the sole responsibility of the provider of such service or activity.

19. LIABILITY

G Adventures and G Adventures Ltd. (collectively, for the purposes of this section, "G Adventures") are not responsible for any damages, expenses, losses, or claims which are attributable to the fault of any Client, the unforeseeable or unavoidable act or omission of a third party unconnected with the provision of any services that form any part of the Product(s), or a Force Majeure event (as defined herein).

G Adventures shall have no liability for loss, theft of or damage to baggage or personal effects of Clients while participating in a Tour. Clients should not leave personal belongings unattended in any public areas, on board any mode of transportation, or elsewhere. Clients assume responsibility for their own effects and belongings. G Adventures cannot accept responsibility for and in no event shall be liable for loss or damage of valuables or other articles left in or on facilities used by G Adventures such as hotels, hostestays, vessels, expedition vehicles, or any other mode of transportation.

In the event that any loss, death, injury or illness is caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of G Adventures or of the Third Party Suppliers of any services which form part of the Contract then G Adventures limits its liability, where applicable by all applicable International Conventions.

Carriage of Clients and their luggage by sea is governed by the Athens Convention which is expressly incorporated into these Terms & Conditions and any liability of G Adventures and/or the Carrier for death or personal injury or for loss or damage to luggage arising out of carriage by sea shall be determined solely in accordance with this Convention. The Athens Convention limits the Carrier's liability for death or personal injury or loss or damage to luggage and sets special provisions for valuables. Clients acknowledge that G Adventures has been delivered undamaged to the Guest unless written notice is given to G Adventures and/or the Carrier.

- in the case of apparent damage, before or at the time of disembarkation or redelivery; or
- in the case of damage which is not apparent or of loss, within 15 days from the date of disembarkation or redelivery or from the time when such redelivery should have taken place.

Any damage payable by G Adventures up to the Athens Convention limits shall be reduced in proportion to any contributory negligence by the Client and by the maximum deductible specified in Article 8 (4) of the Athens Convention. Copies of the Athens Convention are available from G Adventures on request.

In so far as G Adventures may be liable to a Client in respect of claims arising out of carriage by sea, G Adventures shall be entitled to all the rights, defenses, immunities and limitations available, respectively, to the actual carrier and under the relevant Athens Convention and other laws which may apply, and to the benefit of any surrender thereof. To the extent that any provision in these Terms is made null and void by the Athens Convention or any legislation compulsorily applicable or is otherwise unenforceable, it shall be void to that extent but not further. G Adventures' liability will not at any time exceed that of the carrier under its Conditions of Carriage and/or applicable incorporated conventions or other legislation. Any liability in respect of death or personal injury and loss of and damage to luggage which G Adventures may incur to the Client, whether under the contract with the Client in accordance with these Terms or otherwise, shall always be subject to the limits of liability contained in the Athens Convention for death/personal injury.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary elsewhere in these Terms, G Adventures shall not in any circumstances be liable to Clients for any loss or anticipated loss of profit, loss of enjoyment, loss of revenue, loss of use, loss of contract or other opportunity nor for any other consequential or indirect loss or damage of a similar nature.

For claims not involving personal injury, death or illness or which are not subject to the Conventions referred to above, any liability G Adventures may incur for the negligent acts and/or omissions of its Third Party Suppliers shall be limited to a maximum of the price which the Client paid for the Product, not including insurance premiums and administration charges. Where this relates to loss of and/or damage to luggage and/or other personal possessions then G Adventures and its agents will not exceed $1,000. G Adventures will not at any time be liable for any loss of or damage to valuables of any nature. The Client agrees that they shall be precluded from making a double recovery by making the same claims and seeking recovery against G Adventures and its Third Party Suppliers, contractors or other third parties.
