

Leith's at Beaulieu PALACE HOUSE

Palace House has been in Lord Montagu's family ownership since 1538. Its monastic origins are evident and, once inside, visitors can view the many splendid and varied family treasures, portraits, photographs and memorabilia. Above all, Palace House remains a family home still lived in by the present Lord Montagu and his family and much loved by them.

Palace House is the ancestral home of Lord Montagu and offers an impressive backdrop for fine dining whilst still retaining the great warmth and charm of a family home. The Lower Dining Hall will comfortably accommodate up to 36 guests around the long table and the Drawing Room can accommodate 60 guests on banqueting round tables.
