Fred. Olsen's Top 20 Cruises

Within the pages of this brochure you'll find a selection of some of the most popular itineraries from Fred. Olsen's 2019/20 programme. With destinations near and far, and departure dates spread throughout the year, there's a world of choice on offer.

Our recently upgraded and enhanced ocean-going ships can take you on the journey of a lifetime; each of the itineraries on the following pages has been carefully crafted to present the very best of every destination. We've taken into account the best times of year to experience the highlights too, whether it's the flourishing lavender fields of Provence in July, or sensational Sydney in time for the legendary New Year's Eve fireworks.

Elsewhere, the exquisite Mediterranean region features prominently, from the historic towns and cities of the Adriatic to the authentic culture and spectacular scenery of Italy, plus there's a sun-kissed island-hopping adventure to really whet the appetite. If you're looking for awe-inspiring exploration, there are voyages to Iceland, Greenland, Spitsbergen and the remote islands of the Atlantic, while in Fred. Olsen's homeland you can opt for either the spellbinding fjordland or the scenic islands of the north.

To experience the Fred. Olsen difference to the fullest, aboard Braemar you can get to the heart of the Baltic; become immersed in ever-welcoming Denmark; or experience Seville's annual Feria de Abril celebrations from the centre of the city, courtesy of a momentous cruise along the Guadalquivir River. Every port on every Braemar itinerary that sails from the UK is 'closer', with no shuttle buses required.

For details of Fred. Olsen's full cruise programme, see our website, contact your travel agent, or call us to order the full Worldwide 2019/20 brochure.

The Fred. Olsen difference

Whether you choose to sail from one of five departure ports conveniently located across the UK, or head straight to your destination on a fly-cruise, we make it easy to travel the world with Fred. Olsen. Visiting more than 200 ports of call, our smaller, friendlier ships can take you to the heart of spectacular destinations – from the beautiful Norwegian Fjords to the sandy beaches of the Seychelles – and navigate rivers and waterways that others can't reach.

We encourage you to head off on a journey of discovery in every destination, to really get the most out of your holiday. Taking exploration to the next level are our all-new Rigid Inflatable Boats (RIBs): the latest enhancements for the 2019/20 programme. Wherever possible, these exciting craft will offer you the chance to become immersed in destinations in a way few others are able to enjoy.

We're not interested in gimmicks like zip wires, climbing walls or celebrity chefs. We don't have boastful megaships. We take immense pride in our fleet of smaller-sized vessels that retain the style, ambience and understated quality of a country house hotel. They might not be as new as some ships, but we don't automatically believe that younger is better; there's a lot to be said for having the benefit of experience. With the fifth generation Fred. Olsen as Chairman, we believe we've found the perfect formula for you to get the best out of your holiday with us. Ensuring we continue to deliver everything guests would expect, the whole fleet has recently been through extensive dry dock refits to further enhance the on board experience and facilities for guests.

Smaller but spacious

A smaller ship doesn't mean less space; far from it. Each room is comfortably sized, with all that you'll need to enjoy your holiday. In fact, our rooms are comparable to those on some of the mammoth cruise ships. While our vessels are on a more accessible scale, you can have just as much private space.

With fewer people on board it's easy to find a quiet spot to relax in peace with a drink or a good book. There's room to stretch out by the pool and you can get ashore more quickly too. And when you're ashore, you're seeing the best of each port of call with hundreds – not thousands – of others, giving you a much more authentic experience.

Service with a smile

Each member of the Fred. Olsen team has been carefully selected for their warm and welcoming personalities. The quality of our people, supported by training and development, ensures they will give you a great holiday: in guest feedback our staff are always the most highly-rated aspect of the whole experience.

Award-winning cruises

Our friendly staff and crews always work hard to give you the holiday of a lifetime. Pleasingly, this has been recognised by Fred. Olsen winning a number of high profile awards over the past few years, including Cruise Critic's 'Best for Itineraries' for three consecutive years, and gaining the highest rating for cruises under £200 per night in the 2018 Which? Cruise Survey.

Most importantly, from over 27,000 independent guest reviews Fred. Olsen has a guest experience rating of over 4.5 out of 5 – along with being awarded Feefo's Gold Trusted Merchant status, for the fifth time. Perhaps that's why people who try us once so often choose to cruise with us again. There's never been a better time to experience the Fred. Olsen difference.

Cruise with real confidence, with Fred. Olsen's Enjoyment Promise

If you favour a welcoming, 'home-from-home' atmosphere, friendly, smiling staff and like-minded fellow guests with whom you can share a good story or two, you'll likely find travelling with Fred. Olsen a rewarding experience. You don't have to take our word for it though: we're so confident that you'll like cruising with us that we offer our Enjoyment Promise as standard.

Book more than 12 weeks ahead on cruises of five nights or more and if you find that it's not for you within 48 hours of sailing, just let us know and we promise to arrange and pay for your flight back to the UK from the next port and repay the cost of your cruise (you must read the full Terms & Conditions on the back cover before booking).

Your choice of rooms and suites

The stylish, comfortable rooms on board are designed to make your time with us as enjoyable and carefree as possible. Even our lowest-priced Interior Rooms come complete with 'home-from-home' comforts such as interactive smart TV, hairdryer, desk, phone, fridge (which can be stocked as a mini-bar), tea and coffee making facilities and climate control as standard. In an Ocean View Room, you can enjoy the view from either a porthole or picture window, while a Balcony Room allows your own private balcony or terrace balcony space – the perfect place to unwind.

Booking a Suite will transform your cruise experience. Located across the upper decks, these 'home-from-home' spaces enjoy incredible views with space to spread out and relax. Selected Suite grades also qualify for our fantastic Suite Dreams package (see our website for details).

Inspirational days, memorable nights

With a varied entertainment programme featuring activities and performances right throughout the day and into the night, we'll ensure you get the most out of your entire holiday, wherever you are in the world. There may be photography talks, ballroom dancing lessons, theatre workshops, watercolour tutorials and fun quizzes – to name just a few examples. Our fascinating lectures from leading experts are always popular – recent subjects have ranged from wine tasting to piloting Concorde – and there are port talks to prepare you for each destination, too.

Activities vary from cruise to cruise and are highlighted each day in the Daily Times. When the lights go down, we'll treat you to a selection of live shows ranging from music and cabaret to quick-fire stand-up comedy. Simply relax, sit back and enjoy the fabulous acts with your favourite tipple or cocktail to round off the day.

Divine dining & tempting treats

Whether you're fuelling up for the day ahead, enjoying an indulgent lunch, or feasting on the mouthwatering main event – a five-course à la carte dinner – dining on board is sure to be one of the highlights of your holiday. You'll find menus of deliciously tempting dishes expertly crafted by our chefs, and presented with the personal touch of Fred. Olsen's famous on board service. Whether you'd like to treat yourself and indulge, or perhaps choose a healthier option, you'll find ample variety. Should you have any specific needs, we'll do our utmost to accommodate them: please let us know of any special requests at the time of booking.

Cruising with Fred. Olsen is always about choice, so in addition to the main restaurants, you'll find a buffet restaurant – with a casual dress code at all times – and premium speciality restaurants♦ across the fleet. The Grill features the finest cooked-to-order, high quality steaks and seafood in elegant, sophisticated surroundings. The more relaxed Poolside has sublime, themed menus, taking inspiration from the cuisines of the cruising region.

Afternoon tea with sandwiches and cakes is served every afternoon – a little pick-me-up while you're enjoying your time on board. For something extra special, our Premium Traditional Afternoon Tea♦ is the perfect way to spoil yourself on board. You'll enjoy views from the Observatory Lounge and musical accompaniment from our on board pianist, as white-gloved waiters serve a selection of premium teas, along with finger sandwiches, pastries and warm scones with jam and clotted cream. Staying on the elegant theme, The Bookmark Café♦ combines speciality coffees and quality tea blends with heavenly chocolate treats.

♦ Premium Traditional Afternoon Tea, speciality restaurants and Bookmark Café are charged in addition to your cruise price.

Health & well-being

You'll find plenty of ways to enhance your health and well-being on all our ships, from an invigorating walk on the open deck to a spot of swimming in our complimentary pools. You can work off some of those indulgences in the gym; all our ships offer a variety of yoga, aerobics and Pilates classes (chargeable to your on board account), too. What's more, with fewer people on board you'll always find space to unwind, whether it's in a quiet corner, on a sun-lounger by the pool or in a bubbling Jacuzzi, perhaps.

The soothing surroundings of the Atlantis Spa is where you can really treat yourself. Our luxurious spas offer a wide range of beauty and relaxation treatments, including massages, facials, manicures, pedicures and hairdressing, to refresh the mind and revive the body.

Here Malmö Castle and the historic Lilla Torg Square compete with the mighty Turning Torso – Scandinavia's tallest building – for your attention. UNESCO-listed Visby is ripe for exploration too. This well-preserved fortified city was once an important hub of the Hanseatic League.

Make sure you're out on deck for the scenic route into Stockholm – you'll pass through the awe-inspiring Stockholm Archipelago. Two days in the capital afford plenty of time to explore. You could perhaps delve into iconic Swedish culture at ABBA The Museum; glide peacefully along the city's waterways aboard a sightseeing boat; or witness the changing of the guard at the Royal Palace. After a relaxing day at sea and some more captivating archipelago cruising, you'll reach Gothenburg. Among the attractions of Sweden's second city are Maritiman – the world's largest floating ship museum; Götaplatsen Square; and the 8,000-square-metre Volvo Museum. For something a little more energetic, enjoy a canal cruise aboard a 'Paddan' sightseeing boat or venture further afield and uncover Gothenburg's northern archipelago.

First up is Cádiz, believed to be Europe's oldest continuously inhabited settlement. The ancient centre is a maze of narrow streets, alleys and squares, perfect for immersive exploration. Cádiz is famed for its historic watchtowers and tapas, which – according to legend – originated in the city. For an authentic flavour of the region, head to Jerez, 'sherry capital of the world'.

During two days in Seville Braemar will be docked close to the Parque de Maria Luisa and iconic Plaza de España; the Moorish Alcázar Palace and Gothic Cathedral are within reach too. The latter is of particular interest as the home of Christopher Columbus' tomb. That's not all: this cruise has been timed to capture the jubilant annual Feria de Abril. Horse-drawn carriages and flamenco dancers parade the streets during the day, rounded off by a spectacular midnight fireworks.

Leaving Seville via the Guadalquivir River, two Portuguese delights are next. Lisbon is packed with fascinating museums to become immersed in, and maritime history to uncover. Alternatively, you can explore the towns of Óbidos or Sintra. In Leixões, you'll be well-placed for tours to Oporto, where the UNESCO-listed historic centre awaits. Opt for a cruise along the Douro River perhaps, before stopping at a local cellar to savour Port wine. Lastly, you can explore La Coruña, thanks to Braemar's central docking location. With a compact Old Quarter, an impressive promenade and landmarks such as the ancient Tower of Hercules, it's perfect for sightseeing. The city is also your gateway to the Santiago de Compostela Cathedral.

Copenhagen is first of five capital cities awaiting your visit; the welcoming atmosphere is sure to tempt you into exploration. Highlights include the enchanting Tivoli Gardens and the Nyhavn waterfront district, though a tour to the Danish royal residences would surely be the crowning moment of your stay. In vibrant Stockholm you could choose to delve into Swedish culture at ABBA The Museum; glide along the city's waterways aboard a sightseeing boat; or witness the changing of the guard at the Royal Palace. Make sure you're on deck for the scenic passage through the Stockholm Archipelago en route to Helsinki. As well as being home to a raft of Art Nouveau architecture, Helsinki is your gateway to the former residence of composer Jean Sibelius, and, in perfect contrast, an authentic sauna experience.

St Petersburg offers a chance to uncover a collection of architectural treasures: Catherine Palace, the Hermitage Museum and St Isaac's Cathedral, to name a few. An overnight stay here affords the opportunity to spend the evening at the Russian ballet too. From the grandeur of Russia, it's on to the medieval charm of Estonia, with Tallinn's UNESCO-listed Old Town ideal for sightseeing. Alexander Nevskij Cathedral, Kadriorg Palace and more await.

Oslo provides one last chance for discovery. In the capital of Fred. Olsen's homeland don't miss the exhibits at the Vigeland Sculpture Park, or the panoramic views from Oslo Opera House. Elsewhere, the Munch Museum and National Gallery house copies of Edvard Munch's iconic The Scream.

In the colourful capital of Tobermory, why not explore the local Scotch whisky distillery and Aros Park gardens, or venture across the Sound of Mull and discover the 13th century Duart Castle.

The passage to Ullapool includes sailing past the fascinating basalt columns of Fingal's Cave and by St Kilda. This remote archipelago is home to the UK's highest sea cliffs and is a haven for many seabirds. A host of wonders await your discovery from Ullapool, such as Scotland's first Geopark, which includes Loch Glencoul and Eas a' Chual Aluinn – Britain's highest waterfall. The cruise begins with relaxed sailing en route to Reykjavík, gateway to some of Earth's most famous natural wonders. You're sure to be awestruck by the 'Big Three' on the Golden Circle route: the Geysir hot springs, the mighty Gullfoss Waterfall and Thingvellir National Park. Then there's the chance to unwind in the Blue Lagoon's geothermal waters, or enjoy the city's quality museums, galleries and delightful cafés. Next is the splendid natural harbour of Ísafjörður. Visiting the small town centre of timber buildings is an absolute joy. Look out for the Westfjords Heritage Museum and its fascinating exhibits. The magnificent scenery here can be enjoyed on a fjord kayak tour, or you may opt to take a boat trip to see puffins on Vigur Island.

The next day's scenic cruising takes you past Hornstrandir, home of a spectacular nature reserve; and Drangaskörð, one of Iceland's underrated views. The seven rocky peaks that jut out into the sea from the base of the Skarðafjall Mountain would inspire any photographer, as does Eyjafjörður, Iceland's longest fjord. Akureyri nestles on the fjord, and is the start point for tours to Godafoss – 'Waterfall of the Gods' – and tranquil Lake Mývatn. Alternatively, you can opt for the experience of a lifetime by joining a whale watching tour.

Your journey comes to a close on the sublime waters of Seyðisfjörður, a fjord carved by ice age glaciers, distinguished by its colourful harbour town. The valley above this picturesque town echoes to the sound of thundering waterfalls formed by the river Fjarðará cascading down to a lagoon at the head of the fjord.

The first port of call on this highlight-packed voyage is Reykjavik. An overnight stay in Iceland's capital allows ample time to explore its lively centre or perhaps head off to see the wonders of the Golden Circle: the Gullfoss Waterfall, the Strokkur geyser and Thingvellir National Park. Reykjavik is your gateway to the geothermal Blue Lagoon Spa, too.

The first day amid the rugged splendour of Greenland is spent cruising the immaculate waters of Prins Christiansund. Meanwhile, the huge cliffs that rise from the shores of the Torssukatak Fjord will leave you breathless. Setting foot on Greenlandic shores at Qaqortoq, you'll soon be immersed in spectacular scenery. Marvel at the intriguing 'Stone & Man' sculptures perhaps, or experience the tradition of Kaffe-Mik. From Narsarsuaq a boat tour to the Qooroq Ice Fjord is unmissable – the spectacular turquoise icebergs are a photographer's dream.

From these dazzling natural phenomena, you step back in time at Nanortalik. Here you'll get the chance to experience a slice of local life. The Open Air Museum showcases traditional clothing and kayaks, with song and dance shows staged exclusively for your visit. The final afternoon in this mesmerising land is spent cruising the Tasermit Fjord. Your final destination. Kirkwall feels more Scandinavian than Scottish; the town's cathedral was dedicated to Saint Magnus by the Norseman Earl Rögnvald Kali. Elsewhere there are two excellent museums, the well-preserved Tankerness House, and a unique Italian chapel.

Departing Liverpool, you are en route to a truly majestic landscape. Arriving into Kristiansund first – a breathtaking harbour atop four islands – you can admire the old town's remarkable architecture. A day of spectacular sailing follows, through the strait of Nærøysundet, passing Torgghatten, the 'mountain with the hole', and the Seven Sisters mountain range. Black Watch will cross the Arctic Circle on the way to Svolvær, the largest town of the Lofoten archipelago. Ranked as the third best islands to visit by National Geographic, Lofoten's islands are rich in Viking history and Arctic nature. Your adventure continues through the passageways of Raftsundet and the spectacularly narrow Trollfjord – both out of reach to larger ships.

The town of Sortland presents an extraordinary sight – given that all the houses have been painted blue – before Black Watch sails on to the 'Gateway to the Arctic', Tromsø. Here you can discover the iconic Arctic Cathedral, or meet huskies at the Wilderness Centre perhaps. The more adventurous can experience stunning coastal views from Mount Storsteinen, reached via cable car.

Back to Lofoten and a call into Leknes presents a great photo opportunity; the peaks, cliffs and white-sand beaches make it one of Norway's most picturesque places – and that's saying something. All before passing Reine, regarded as one of the world's most beautiful villages. The final call is Lerwick, Shetland's friendly capital. The town retains fascinating shops and delightful historic buildings, while further afield fascinating wildlife and Bronze Age settlements are of interest.

The morning after joining your ship you'll be immersed in beautiful Gran Canaria. From Las Palmas there'll be an opportunity to explore huge forests smothered with pine trees, or perhaps unwind among the iconic golden sand dunes of Maspalomas. It's then on to Cape Verde, where Mindelo will be alive with colourful markets and traditional Morna music. In Praia centuries of history are on display at the Archaeology Museum, or you could take the chance to catch a Funaná dance performance.

After some relaxing time at sea, Boudicca will circumnavigate the isolated Ascension Island. Commentary from the ship will reveal the island's history, while local representatives offer souvenirs for sale. Remote St Helena follows, a truly captivating destination to behold; it was on this British overseas territory where Napoleon was exiled and died. In Namibia, Walvis Bay is a haven for wildlife, particularly pink flamingos that may be seen at the natural lagoon. It's also your gateway to the sand dunes of the world's oldest desert, the Namib. Your penultimate call will be Lüderitz, a town almost lost in time, nestled between the Namib wilderness and the South Atlantic coast. Nearby lies the sand-engulfed ghost town of Kolmanskop, which makes for a fascinating visit.

During a fitting finale exploring Cape Town, you could choose to take in the stunning scenery at Cape Point; view curious penguins at Boulders Beach; or visit Robben Island to learn of Nelson Mandela's inspirational life. Exploring the biodiversity of Table Mountain National Park will surely be the icing on the cake.
