

Caribbean Shore Things

Get new perspectives on Caribbean destinations from our homeports in Miami and San Juan — setting sail through turquoise waters and painted skies. From quiet beach mornings to exhilarating afternoons spent exploring, our Miami voyages feature a stop (and often a late-night-stay) at our private beach club experience in Bimini, Bahamas, the Virgin Voyages Beach Club at Bimini. From exploring the waterfalls of Puerto Plata to diving through the stunning coral reefs of Cozumel, there are so many ways to explore the incredible places we go.

All Shore Things are bookable on our app 120 days prior to sailing (for Mega RockStar and RockStar Sailors, it's 135 days). Please be aware that Shore Things for Puerto Plata and San Juan are only accessible exclusively in app right now. All Shore Things are subject to change due to pricing, availability, and weather conditions.

Discover something completely new, or see a different side of a destination you already love.

TO BOOK YOUR SAILING CONTACT

Departures from the expected.

Vibrant conversation with locals over homemade pasta and (multiple) bottles of Chianti. Immersive performances with (elaborate) circus twists. Our experiences aim to connect you — to people, places, and (seafaring) paths you never thought to wander. And, by curating itineraries with late and overnight stays, we'll show you the real activities that make each destination so special.

Intimate. Exclusive. Unique.

Our Shore Things are designed to be intimate and exclusive experiences shared by small groups of like-minded individuals. So with that said, it's best to book early to ensure availability.

WHAT WE DO:

Immersive, sustainable experiences that seduce Sailors with our passions — passions for design, food and beverage, music, nature and adventure.

Thought-provoking and culturally rich content
that's energizing for the body and soul, as well as being Instagrammable.

Up-close and tactile opportunities as smaller groups, welcomed by locals.

WHAT WE DON'T DO:

Inauthentic experiences with fake scripts and commission-paid shopping stops.

Impersonal, large-group tours that pit Sailor against Sailor for seats, views, or access.

"Follow me" flags, tour stickers, and forced smiles.

JUST A TASTE

Our shore excursions are designed to inspire personal and experiential connection.
We have experience categories to suit all Sailors.

Shore Things

CARIBBEAN PORT

The Beach Club at Bimini

It isn't just the impossibly neon turquoise water, or the seemingly unperturbed beaches that coyly dance with the waves that make Bimini so enticing. Sitting on the westernmost part of the Bahamian Islands, Bimini is the far less-visited port home to a decidedly more intimate and visceral heartbeat.

Sapona Shipwreck & Shark Snorkeling

Spend an incredible day on an underwater safari where you'll see a shipwreck, and even share the waves with nurse and reef sharks at Triangle Rock—a controlled environment. The Wreck of Sapona, is widely regarded as the most famous dive site in Bimini and is evidence of the island's storied history. After running aground in the Great Hurricane of 1926, the Sapona was used during US prohibition to store illegal rum. The wreck is teeming with marine life that has made the ship their home.

Guided Two-Tank Scuba Dive

With its direct exposure to the Atlantic Ocean's relatively shallow reefs, Bimini is one of the most diverse aquatic destinations in The Bahamas. Neon coral reefs make for not only an easily accessible dive, but also provide shelter for an abundance of marine life — ranging from the tiniest of reef fish to turtles, dolphins, eagle rays and more. On this scuba dive, you'll explore reefs and wreck sites that the ocean's marine life has taken for their own.

Cozumel - Playa del Carmen

If you go beyond the expected in Cozumel, you'll find thriving ecotourism efforts, unspoiled white sand beaches, and a coast lined with the miles-long Meso-American Barrier Reef — home to some of the most stunning coral reef formations and sea creatures in the Caribbean.

Chaak Tun Cenote and Playa del Carmen Tour

Head to Playa del Carmen to witness the low-lit caverns, natural pools and stalactites of Cenote Chaak Tun. A sacred site to the ancient Mayans, these natural wonders were created by the filtration of water through limestone terrain over the course of thousands of years. Follow the guides to a freshwater underground river, where you'll have the opportunity to visit the underground caverns and take a dip. Afterwards, you'll have free time to wander around Playa del Carmen's lively downtown.

Chichén Itzá and Sacred Cenote Tour

The tour begins at Chichén Itzá—one of the largest Mayan cities and now considered one of the Seven New Wonders of the World. As you wander through, you can feel the history and culture brimming from the sacred site. With 365 steps, the great Mayan astronomers created the largest calendar oriented to mark solstices and equinoxes in the Temple of Kukulcan. Afterwards, swim in a cenote—a sacred freshwater pool that the Maya believed represented the entrance to the underworld.

Sianka'an UNESCO World Heritage Site & Muyil Ruins

On this tour, you'll visit the Muyil Ruins—also known as Chunyaxché—a UNESCO World Heritage site located on the edge of a lagoon in the Sian Ka'an Biosphere preserve. It was a major maritime trading port with close ties to the large nearby site of Coba. Afterwards, head to an embarking pier—where your captain will take you along the old Maya trading channels, visit a small Maya ruin on the way and swim in pristine, crystal-clear waters before heading back to Playa del Carmen.

Watercolor Skies and Sunset Catamaran

On this 2½-hour coastal cruise at sunset, Sailors get to witness the gold and pink-toned palette of the Caribbean horizon. Watch the colors change from light-yellows and pinks to burnt oranges and reds, and finally, to a deep indigo blue—all while enjoying the views from a catamaran boat. Help yourself to the open bar, mingle and take in every last drop of the sun before it bids you goodnight.

Margarita and Chocolate Mixology

At the Mayan Cacao Company, unearth the history of chocolate and learn how it became such a central role in Mayan social and religious life. See the manufacturing process first-hand, participate in a demonstration and sample delicious artisanal chocolate. Walk into the workshop ready to create a chocolate margarita from scratch. Oh, and then drink it. Just like that, you've found your new go-to drink.

Two-Tank Scuba Diving in Cozumel

Whether you're an experienced scuba diver or newly certified, this dive tour at Arrecifes de Cozumel National Marine Park is the best way to see the world-renowned coral formations. Depending on the day's conditions, the first stop will likely be the Palancar Gardens. Your second dive will be the captain's choice—a spot teeming with tropical fish, lobsters and even moray eels. This is a national park and home to a variety of species—so take in the sights and leave behind only your bubbles.

Cozumel Coral Reef Restoration

At Cozumel's only Reef Restoration program, experts provide you with an introduction to coral reproduction and restoration concepts—including an up-close look at coral spawning at the shoreside aquarium. Afterwards, guides will take you on a snorkel tour of the coral gardens, followed by downtime at a bar at the beach with local food and drinks. Proceeds from your participation support the Coral Farms program, allowing the program to continue their efforts to replenish reefs and educate others.

Scuba Diving for Newbies in Cozumel

This tour has been designed for non-certified scuba divers who want to learn in delicate waters. After receiving instructions from a PADI-instructor, you'll put on the gear (with help, of course) and get directly in the water from the beach. Once you've spent a few minutes in waist-deep water getting used to breathing underwater, you'll head out with the guide to explore Cozumel's famous coral formations and curious tropical fish.

The Amazing Secret River: Nature's Crystal Museum

Over millions of years, nature has been working on a piece of geographical artwork that puts any man-made creation to shame—Río Secreto Natural Reserve. Walk, wade and swim past stalactites and stalagmites embedded in the crystal-clear freshwater of this well-cared for and sustained nature reserve. Following a guided tour of the subterranean world, you'll have a taste of the local flavors with a Mexican lunch before heading back to the pier.

Clear Kayak, Snorkel and Beach Day

From atop your completely transparent kayak, Sailors will have the ability to see everything above and below the water as you glide across the sea. And for a different angle, grab a mask and fins and snorkel down under the surface and start looking for a colorful school of fish to join. Afterwards, head back up to the beach facilities to soak up the sun, swim in the pool, or relax under the shade of an umbrella.

Monster Jeep to Oceanside Mayan Ruins

Hold on to your butts and live out your big-wheely dreams in a Monster Jeep, exploring parts of the island few visitors get a chance to see. Take the wheel on a path traveled by the Mayans (now accessible in a 4x4—woop woop) to the southernmost lighthouse, an offshore snorkeling site, and to some oceanfront Mayan ruins. A beachside alfresco lunch is included followed by a tequila tasting on your way back to the ship. Jeep drivers will have some soft drinks to quench their thirst too.

Mayan Bee Sanctuary and Senses Tour

The first stop on this colorful tour is the Mayan Bee Sanctuary—where you'll learn the significance of the sacred stingless Melipona Bees and the cenotes they live near. Explore the cenotes as the bees interact in their natural space while you learn about the benefits of the bees' golden liquid (and maybe even have a small tasting). Your second stop will be at a small bar, where you'll sip a cocktail by the sea before moving on to your last stop, an extraordinary Spice Market.

Chichén Itzá, Cenote Ik Kil and Lunch

Begin your journey with a narrated ride to the famous Chichén Itzá Mayan ruins. Learn about the Mayan ball game court, the temple of the Warriors and the Kukulkan pyramid. Afterwards, you'll have the opportunity to swim in the turquoise water of a natural and sacred cenote formation—considered by the Mayans to be the entrance into the underworld. Finish off the experience with a Mexican-Yucatán lunch at a restaurant located nearby.

Tulum Ruins Tour and Cenote Swim

Sitting on tall cliffs and facing the rising sun, Tulum's ruins overlook the Caribbean Sea with tranquil pride. As you weave through its temples full of sophisticated and detailed carvings, be sure not to miss the panoramic perspective from "El Castillo," the most imposing building in the city. After your tour, head off to a cenote to cool off. Swim in the freshwater, or study the stalagmites and other formations in the dim light, as the gentle water gives you a sense of mystical freedom.

Snorkeling Beach Club Day in Cozumel

Just a short 10-minute ride away, the Playa Uvas Beach Club is one of the best snorkeling spots that also happens to be an amazing beach club. You can snorkel, kayak, paddleboard, take a cooking class, or do a tequila tasting—all of which are included in the tour. You'll also have access to an all-you-can-eat lunch with access to a full bar of domestic beverages for 2 hours. Dip your toes in the warm sand from your lounge chair. Or your hammock. Or from under your umbrella. No bad moves here.

Cozumel Snuba Diving Adventure

Snuba diving, like snorkeling, doesn't require the use of an air tank to breathe while swimming underwater. Instead, the air tank is connected to a small raft that sits on the water above you. After a short introduction, you'll visit the Cozumel Reef Restoration project—where several environmental groups have teamed up to create breathtaking coral gardens. After the 25-min dive, you can utilize snorkel equipment, or hit up the nearby restaurant and bar serving local food and drinks.

Off-Road to Jade Cavern, Cozumel

Hop on your 4x4 recreational off-road vehicle and head into the enchanted, canopy-covered jungle trails of Cozumel. Seating up to 4 passengers, you'll make your way to the Jade Cavern—a secluded coral cave and oasis filled with lush vegetation and a freshwater cenote. Spend your time leisurely swimming, relaxing or exploring the flora (and snapping some Insta-worthy shots). Afterwards, head back on the trail toward the vestiges of a Mayan settlement before heading back to the pier.

Cozumel's Punta Sur Park Exploration

Punta Sur is a 247-acre ecological park that covers the reefs, beaches, lagoons and forest of the surrounding area. From peak croc-watching opportunities at the crocodile watch tower to climbing the iconic Celarain lighthouse for a stunning view from the nautical museum—you'll spend the latter part of the tour driving through the dense jungle in search of secluded beaches. Once there, dip your toes in the tranquil waters and relax with a locally made and well-earned adult beverage.

Mexican Cuisine Workshop and Tasting

In this unique, hands-on Mexican meal preparation workshop—a local chef will unveil the secrets to cooking a three-course menu at a fully-equipped workstation. While you and the chef are preparing your meal, feel free to sip some of the Mexican wine as you work. If you have free time after, head to Cozumel's largest beach park nearby for a game of volleyball. Unless you've "oversipped"—in which case, feel free to do nothing but lay in the sun and enjoy... your buzz.

Havin' a Swell Time—Surf Lessons

Have you always wanted to say things like "Dude, he rip!" or "Surfing has totally sold its soul!"—but needed the skills to back it up? Well you're in luck, because you can learn with the most beautiful backdrop imaginable. So even if you're bad... the pictures won't be! But for real, this is a great opportunity to let your fears go and push yourself outside your comfort zone. Regardless of your age/skill level, this experience is exactly where you're meant to be—among kind people and on kind waters.

Mayan City of Ek' Balam and Cenote Dip

Asleep for many centuries, Ek' Balam, "The Black Jaguar," is awakening before the eyes of the world. The vast dimensions of the structures, highly-decorated facades and walls surrounding the main plaza are the highlights of this archeological site. After the tour, take a dip in the crystalline water of an underground cenote—or "natural well." Submerge in this mystical pool as the blues and greens dance with the reflecting rays atop the water before heading back to the pier.

Cozumel Shore Snorkeling for Newbies

This tour of the Villa Blanca Reef is designed to give even the most novice snorkeler a rich underwater experience. Your PADI-certified dive guides will help you with your gear and teach you everything you need to know. Once you're ready, you'll be accompanied on a guided tour of the breathtaking views of coral formations and colorful tropical fish, in depths varying from 3 to 20 feet. Afterwards, you'll have time to visit the restaurant and bar on location serving local food and drinks.

Cozumel's Caribbean Bar Crawl

On this crawl, you'll explore the downtown area of the island while visiting the "must-see" bars—where drinks and a friendly staff will be waiting for you. Spots include: El Palomar—a Caribbean-style house with some of the best drinks on the island; Chela-Nah—one of the oldest houses on the island located in the heart of downtown serving ice-cold bevies, and La Classica—an authentic local bar where you'll get a taste of authentic Cozumel.

Tulum and Río Secreto Natural Reserve

On this tour, you'll explore Tulum—the ancient Mexican city on a cliff overlooking the turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea. Afterwards, you'll head over to Río Secreto Natural Reserve—a piece of geographical artwork that has been coined, "Mother Nature's Crystal Museum". Walk, wade and swim past stalactites and stalagmites embedded in the crystal-clear freshwater of this well-cared for and sustained nature reserve.

Punta Sur Jeep Adventure and Snorkel

On this tour, you'll head out on a jeep to Punta Sur State Park—where you'll visit a small area of Mayan ruins, a crocodile sanctuary and a lighthouse with an amazing view of the island. Once at the beach, explore the undersea with an array of sea life in a guided snorkel tour. After a well-earned Mexican lunch, you'll have plenty of free time to hang and relax on the beach.

VIP Day at Anemona Beach in Punta Sur

At Cozumel's ecological reserve—Punta Sur State Park—you'll spend a leisurely four hours at the gorgeous Anemona De Mar Beach. At this undisturbed and gorgeous beach, you'll be able to snorkel, swim, play volleyball, sunbathe or just relax with a margarita in your hand. You'll also have an opportunity to see the famed crocodile sanctuary and climb to the top of a lighthouse for unrivaled views of the island. Everything at the beach is yours to use—including an open bar and a lunch.

Cozumel 3 Reef Snorkel by Boat

Coral reef formations are all individual and uniquely different—much like how your mom would describe you. But this time, it's true (kidding—you're amazing). From our ship's pier, cruise out into the turquoise waters en route to 3 distinct reef locations for 3 very different snorkeling experiences. Between snorkeling among the colorful coral reef formations and exotic fish of each location, you'll have time to take in the views from the leisurely boat ride to each spot.

Sea Trek Helmet Diving in Cozumel

Wearing an astronaut-style helmet that provides a continuous air supply, you'll explore the undersea via sea trek helmet diving — taking in the gorgeous coral formations without ever even getting your hair wet. A half-hour later, it's back up to dry land to spend the rest of your time relaxing beachside, or swapping your helmet for snorkeling equipment and diving back into the water.

Cozumel, Your Way—In a Private Van

There's so much to do in Cozumel—from the beaches to the ruins, or the electric restaurants and shops. In your own private van with your very own local guide, you can craft your hyper-specific, completely-you day. Or if designing your own day in a place you've never been feels overwhelming, leave it to your expert guide to take you to all the can't-miss spots around the island.

Need 4 Speed—ATV and Speedboat Ride

After a short instructional driving course—vroom vroom—it's time to hit the dirt roads in an ATV and explore Cozumel's jungle. Once you've made your way to the Caribbean Sea, you'll have the opportunity to maximize your speeding style by driving a speedboat past deserted beaches and lagoons. Once your need for speed has been properly satiated, jump in the coral reef-rich waters with a snorkel and mask, and explore the colorful world beneath the surface.

Swim and Snorkel with Whale Sharks

There are no words a writer could use to aptly describe the magic of seeing a whale shark in real life—let alone swim with them. This gentle, slow-moving giant peacefully inhabits the sea—and in this rare instance, you can, too. Once your expert tour guides brief you on everything, you'll take a short boat ride to the areas where the animals are found—followed by a surreal-can't-believe-it's-happening opportunity to snorkel beside them and witness the astounding beauty of their presence.

Chichén Itzá and Mayaland for Lunch

Named for the large cenotes that provide the otherwise dry landscape with life-giving water, Chichén Itzá is an iconic example of the elaborate architecture of the Mayan people. A guide will walk you through the spectacular ruins as you learn about the buildings and their significance to the larger Mayan way of life and the legacy of their indigenous culture. Afterwards, you'll travel to Mayaland resort where you'll indulge in a Mexican-style lunch amidst the tranquility of your surroundings.

Mayan Ruins of Tulum and Kaan Luum Lagoon

On this tour, you'll navigate the remains of the ancient ruins of Tulum—like the pyramid temple of El Castillo, the Temple of the Frescoes and the Templo Dios del Viento (God of the Winds Temple). After the ruins, head to the exotic and often overlooked Kaan Luum lagoon for a scenic and leisurely swim. Hidden in the Mayan jungle, Kaan Luum has a deep cenote in the center, which causes the rims of the lagoon to be a totally different, seafoam-green color from the center.

Tour of the Mayan Ruins of Tulum

Leaning palm trees, steep rocky cliffs, delicate cactus flowers and a crew of large, sunbathing iguanas surround this walled city perched on the edge of a cliff overlooking the sea. You'll have the opportunity to experience the gorgeous, ancient structures and learn about the rich history of Tulum's Mayan ruins. '

Playa Del Carmen's Underground River

After a scenic 45 min ferry ride to Playa del Carmen, you'll make your way to the heart of the jungle to see an unreal natural wonder—a 65 million year old cenote. You can jump into the fresh crystalline water and swim through secret chambers connected by long low ceiling caves replete with stalagmites and stalactites—exploring a space that was used for sacred rituals by priests and warriors in ancient Mayan civilizations.

Key West

With its fiercely independent personality and leave-your-last-name-at-the-dock attitude, Key West is a celebration of cultural collision — with Bahamian Conch, Cuban and African-American heritage permeating the spirit and inclusive philosophy of the island known as “One Human Family”.

Historic Key West Walking Tour

Hear about famous (and infamous) Key West personalities and discover the city's unique architecture, flora and culture on this 1½-hour tour through the historic district. On foot, guides share the island's fascinating history from the early days of wrecking through the sponging and cigar-making eras and on to the eventual influence of the U.S. Navy. Stops include the Sculpture Garden, Mallory Square and the Shipwreck Treasure Museum, where you'll be met with beverages and conch fritters.

The Twist: Ultimate Cigar Tour

Rolling a cigar by hand is considered a true art and a task known only as the aptly named "twists." On this tour, you'll visit several locations and learn the tradition of the torcedor — and while it's not as old as in Cuba, the Dominican twists have recently acquired a reputation that is similar to that of those in Havana. You'll learn how to stuff, roll, wrap and layer — and will have the opportunity to taste and buy some of the incredible cigars you witnessed being made.

St. Croix

The largest of the U.S. Virgin Islands, St. Croix has been coined, “The Garden of Antilles”, for its lush geography and less touristy feel.

Exclusive Buck Island Snorkel and Beach Day

All aboard a private 32-foot Boston Whaler powerboat for just you and up to 12 of your closest friends on a day trip to Buck Island. Hop off the boat to snorkel the underwater trails at Buck Island Reef National Monument. Later, relax on Buck Island's pristine beach or venture up to the observation deck for a view of the island and vast Caribbean sea. Top off the day with a cocktail with local Cruzan Rum or MUTINY Island Vodka as you cruise back to Christiansted Harbor.

Triple Threat Shipwreck Reef Dive

Swim through three underwater shipwreck sites and discover a coral reef teeming with marine life on a two-tank scuba dive off the west coast of St. Croix. With calm conditions and an average depth of 45 feet, it is a relaxing, easy dive. First, visit the Suffolk Maid, a North Sea fishing trawler. Next, discover The Virgin Islander, a barge, before exploring at The North Wind, a tugboat. Hop back on the (above water) boat for a short ride to a colorful west-end coral reef for a final dive.

St. Croix on Two Wheels

See St. Croix on two wheels in a 10-mile bike tour around the west end of the island. Discover nature and history as you pedal past the rainforest, coastline and historic Freedom City while learning about the coastal ecosystem of the island. You'll hop off your bike at Butler Bay Plantation for a walking tour of the 260-year-old estate. Enjoy a well-deserved break with a virgin piña colada smoothie, plant-based slider and panoramic views on the estate's porch

Better Cocktail, Better Planet Class

Meet MUTINY Island Vodka, a distilled vodka made from breadfruit (aka the island potato) that's transforming the global community. Upon arrival at the distillery, you'll be greeted with a MUTINY Island Vodka cocktail before embarking on an intimate tour where you'll learn how the vodka is made and its impact on the environment. Next, craft your own cocktail with MUTINY's own in-house mixologist. As a parting gift, receive a complimentary 750ml bottle to spread MUTINY's mission on the mainland.

Brews and Rum Tour

Taste local craft beer and world-renowned rum while visiting the Leatherback Brewing Company and Captain Morgan Visitor Center. At the brewery, take a tour to immerse yourself in the brewing process and taste the beers at the bar. Next, visit the Captain Morgan Visitor Center to learn about the legendary Captain, rum-soaked history and the rum itself. Plus, take home a complimentary miniature bottle of Captain Morgan rum.

Frederiksted by Foot

Out of all of St. Croix's charming seaside towns, Frederiksted holds the most history. On this historical walking tour, your guide will highlight culture influences, architectural elements and must-see sights. Begin your tour at the waterfront and walk the wide streets of Frederiksted while your guide points out sights like the Old Danish School and St. Patrick's Church along the way until you reach Strand Street Park. At the park, you can visit Fort Frederik and the Caribbean Museum.

Hike to Tide Pools at Annaly Bay

Hike with a guide along a shady trail to reach tide pools to swim in and discover marine life. The views of Davis Bay and the Caribbean Sea plus the tide pools at the midway point make the 4.2 mile hike worth every step. The hike is approximately one hour each way with steep sections and parts in ankle deep water. Along the way, your guide will point out native plant life and wildlife. At the halfway point, you'll reach the tide pools for a refreshing dip before heading back to the trail head.

Christiansted Walking Tour

Its Caribbean location, Danish history and American status gives St. Croix a mixed history and culture. Uncover St. Croix's past, present and future on a historical guided walking tour of Christiansted. Your tour guide will take you to Fort Christiansvern, the Steeple Building, the old Danish Customs House and Government House. You'll have an hour of free time to stroll along the Christiansted boardwalk to admire the harbor and enjoy a complimentary soda at The Mill bar.

Discover Scuba Diving

Discover the depths of the sea by learning the basics of scuba diving — without the need for PADI certification. Your course begins with a short lecture and training session followed by an open water dive. Once you're feeling comfortable, you'll head out by boat to the diving site, where the new skills you've learned will be put to the test during a guided reef dive 30 feet below the ocean's surface with your instructor by your side.
