Creating Culinary Innovation in Asia

Tom Götter

Tom Götter, VP Oceans Hotel Operations for Scenic Group, reveals his inspirations and the influence of Asian cuisine on his creations.

What sets the Scenic Eclipse culinary experience apart?

Scenic Eclipse is innovative in many ways, including the dining aspect. We are the only ship at sea offering the à la carte spectrum we do, with as many variances and recipes.

With up to 10 dining experiences, we have many more options, and each venue has different teams and changing menus every single day.

How can guests make the most of their culinary journey?

I always say: try something you would never normally order. It's very easy to elevate a lobster. Instead, we want to surprise with really humble ingredients. When guests say 'I've never had food like this', then I know we are doing the right thing.

Are your culinary creations inspired by Asia?

It's much more than great food. It goes all the way to how the dishes can connect to tell a story, and the amazing spaces we have. At Koko's, we encourage guests to try new things. It's a vibrant, colourful atmosphere. Then, I created the Night Market because I believe street food should be honoured, and I want to elevate it and make it more desirable.

You also have Sushi @ Koko's, which is a very straightforward approach to traditional sushi, with ingredients of the highest quality. Even in other spaces on the ship, guests can experience the Asian influence – I highly encourage them to try on the Japanese whiskey at the Scenic Lounge Bar.

Koko's Sake Bar

Enjoy this traditional Japanese drink with a modern twist. With 14 premium varieties on board, experiment with cocktails, take it cold before dinner or hot to neutralise your palate as you finish a meal.

Packing Essentials for your Cruise

One of the best things about taking a cruise is that you can visit multiple destinations, but only need to unpack once. Here are some of the essentials to include:

- A small size, secure day bag.
- Light waterproof jacket or raincoat. Although the Scenic Eclipse voyages avoid most of the rainy seasons in Asia and Indonesia, rain can come at any time.

- Workout gear for sessions in the PURE: Yoga & Pilates studio or at Scenic Eclipse's state-of-the-art gym.
- Swimwear if you want to relax in the inviting Vitality Pools while sailing in Japan or enjoy water activities in postcard-perfect beaches in Indonesia.

- High SPF-factor sunscreen and a hat - preferably one that is foldable, or at least a baseball cap.
- Scarves or shawls to layer up if it gets colder at night. In Asia, it may also be handy for women to cover their shoulders when visiting religious sites.

What to wear on board?

A good guideline is to keep it casual and comfortable during the day, and smart casual – or even a little dressed-up if you wish – in the evening. Male guests usually pack a sports coat or blazer with a collared shirt; and women wear smart dresses or attire, especially when dining at specialty restaurants or watching a performance in the theatre.

We supply each guest with a Scenic drink bottle

Reflecting our commitment to a sustainable future, you'll receive an insulated water bottle to refill at our on board filtered water stations during your journey.

Extra tips when exploring...

Japan and South Korea

- Be sure to 'break in' new shoes prior to your travel to avoid blisters. Comfortable slip on shoes are a great option, as you'll constantly take them on and off when visiting the temples.
- Prefer lightweight, breathable fabrics for the often-humid climate in Japan.

Indonesia

- Comfortable, light walking shoes or sandals with a good grip are essential for nature walks. Consider also packing water shoes for activities like snorkeling or walking on rocky shores.
- Along with swimsuits, take UV tops to enhance your protection when enjoying the tropical climate.

Your ultra-luxury suite amenities

Each Scenic Eclipse suite is fully stocked with luxurious ESPA products and Dyson hairdryers.
