CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

CHAPTER 1

From Miami to Cartagena

ANTHEM OF THE TROPICS

Your journey begins with the tranquil flow of the Atlantic, where waves and wind lull you into a state of serene anticipation. A warm breeze hints at what's to come. The epitome of sun-drenched wonder, as dreamy beach days turn into sacred pool nights. The treasures hidden deep below tumbling waterfalls. The exploration, relaxation, and celebration of it all. Here, there is no worry — there is no hurry. There is only the simple bliss of now.

From Miami to Cartagena

As you near the Caribbean Sea, sparkling azure waters welcome you to a world of tropical splendor. Where you'll walk among flamingos and swim beside sea turtles. Hike scenic trails through lush landscapes to the secluded beaches of St. Barts. Discover rare wildlife while kayaking through the mangrove forests of Bonaire. Stroll the candy-colored streets of Curaçao's capital before visiting its iconic floating market. This ballad of island culture comes to an exhilarating crescendo in the walled city of Cartagena, where art, history, and free spirits meld into mesmerizing harmony.

WILLEMSTAD, CURAÇAO

JAN 12

Beyond the palm-fringed beaches and crystalline waters, Curaçao is revered for its signature blend of Caribbean and European influences. Explore the city center of Willemstad, a UNESCO World Heritage Site brimming with Dutch charm, warm smiles, and centuries of history. This multifaceted city is home to kaleidoscopic reefs, liqueur distilleries, and the oldest synagogue in the Americas. Whether you're looking to unwind or explore, Curaçao delivers the perfect balance of culture and adventure.

KRALENDIJK, BONAIRE

JAN 13

A haven for nature enthusiasts, divers, and sunworshippers alike, Bonaire's capital city beckons with tropical marvels. Surrounded by the largest underwater marine park in the Caribbean, this quaint island is home to countless wonders from pristine beaches to colorful palaces of coral. Discover the diverse ecosystems both underwater and above it, as you venture through the mangrove forest of Lac Bay, come face-to-face with sea turtles, and breathe in the beauty of life in Bonaire.

CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

JAN 15

Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1984, Cartagena is known for its historical character and modern spirit. The city's strategic location made it an essential stop from Europe to the West Indies during the time of naval exploration. Discover vestiges of this era in the fortresses, monuments, and well-preserved colonial buildings of Cartagena's Old Town. Be sure to stroll through the narrow, art-draped streets of Getsemaní, where charm, charisma, and culture captivate in equal measure.

EMBERA, PANAMA

CHAPTER 2

From Cartagena to Valparaíso

REIGN OF THE RAINFOREST

Welcome to nature in full bloom. To a world bursting with life in vivid color. A plant kingdom ruled by rushing waterfalls, orchids as tall as humans, and mountains painted a thousand shades of green. A region of bamboo groves and winding brooks, of hummingbirds and butterflies, of stilted villages and stone temples — where the rainforest reigns supreme. Where toucans sing from guava trees above and rivers echo through sacred valleys below. Where emerald canopies shelter all forms of life and ancient rituals preserve ancestral legacies. Discover the indigenous communities, endemic creatures, and exotic flora that thrive in this lush part of the world.

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

From Cartagena to Valparaíso

Towering gates open to reveal the historical Panama Canal — the world's only waterway where East becomes West. Take a moment to marvel, as vast locks elevate Silver Shadow 85 feet above sea level into Gatun Lake. Let the rainforest air awaken your senses as you enter Central America. Explore archaeological ruins at Panamá Viejo, an early European settlement and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Just outside of Manta, take a dip in the crystalline waters of the San Lorenzo waterfalls. And beyond Lima's dynamic epicenter, discover unique Amazonian wonders showcased at Parque de las Leyendas. When you take the time to wander, mother nature reveals herself in all her majesty.

FUERTE AMADOR (PANAMA CITY), PANAMA

JAN 17 - 18

Expect incredible morning views as you arrive at the port for Panama City. Amidst lush scenery, the city shines in gold as the sun rises above it. And with an overnight, you'll have ample time to bask in the glow. Casco Antiguo, with its colonial grandeur, is a must-visit UNESCO site. Hike through Soberanía National Park to meet toucans, sloths, and monkeys. Venture deeper inland to explore the rainforest villages of the Emberá people, who will, undoubtedly, be thrilled to share their stories, wisdom, and way of life.

MANTA, ECUADOR

JAN 21

A modern metropolis of beachside promenades, high rises, and city slickers, Manta is one of Ecuador's major economic hubs. This city has a giant tuna statue welcoming visitors, so it's no surprise that seafood is high on everybody's list of important things. Also high on that list is the Archaeological Museum of the Central Bank of Manta with its ceramics collection dating back to 800 A.D. South of Manta, the Pacoche Wildlife Refuge beckons with the perfume of palo santo and the promise of untamed beauty.

CALLAO (LIMA), PERU

JAN 24

At the edge of Lima, the port city of Callao offers a range of unique coastal experiences along Peru's Pacific shore. Sunshine splashes through rocky outcrops as you explore the rugged Palmino Islands, meeting rare wildlife from Andean condors to bottlenose dolphins. Stroll through Lima's Barranco district, where art, history, and the flavors of the Amazon rainforest come alive in local markets and cafes. End your visit with a sizzling plate of lomo saltado and a refreshing pisco sour.

A GARDEN OF MOMENTS

CALLAO, PERU

CALLAO

January 24, 2028

In the enchanted gardens of the Pedro de Osma Museum, time slows to the cadence of Peru's ancestral rhythms. As twilight embraces the colonial mansion's open-air courtyard, each moment becomes a celebration of presence. Here, you will sip handcrafted pisco sours as Afro-Peruvian music tantalizes the senses. Traditional cuisine whispers tales of the Andes and the Amazon, each bite a window into history, an awakening to the nuances of Peru's cultural soul.

STRAIT OF MAGELLAN, CHILE

CHAPTER 3

From Valparaíso to Buenos Aires

LANDS OF FIRE AND ICE

In South America's southernmost region, you'll discover an extraordinary crossroads of flame and frost. Where snowcapped volcanoes pierce the sky, and hot springs bubble in the shadow of icebergs. Bright blue glaciers line soaring mountains, bathing in the glow of fiery sunsets. Penguins waddle along icy shores while whales leap from the depths of the Southern Ocean, all joining in the dance of untamed elements. A dance mirrored by the region's lively culture. These lands of stark contrasts reveal a breathtaking portrait of nature's duality — the convergence of earth's most dramatic extremes.

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

From Valparaíso to Buenos Aires

After a glorious night in the bohemian city of Valparaíso, you'll continue south to experience the wonders of Patagonia by land and sea. Marvel at the volcanoes of Puerto Montt and hike to the glaciers at the End of the World, in Tierra del Fuego. Discover the region's flavors in seafood stews and charcoal-grilled meats. Sail through the Chilean fjords and meet some of the thousands of penguins who rule the Falkland Islands, a new destination for a Silversea World Cruise. From there, head to the UNESCO listed Valdés Peninsula of Puerto Madryn. And then you're off to the land of passion and romance, Buenos Aires.

VALPARAÍSO, CHILE

JAN 28 - 29

Inspiring centuries of creativity, this port city has long captured the imaginations of poets, musicians, and artists alike. Hop on a funicular and soar above steep hills embellished with a unique blend of Spanish and Art Deco architecture and colorful clifftop homes. Spend your day wandering into craft markets, vintage boutiques, and artisanal coffee shops in the city's UNESCO listed historic quarter. As the sun goes down, discover a vibrant nightlife scene where live music beckons from every corner.

PUNTA ARENAS, CHILE

FEB 5

Nestled at the edge of the world, Punta Arenas abounds with natural wonders, rich flavors, and fascinating history. Delve into the age of discovery at the Museo Nao Victoria, offering a glimpse into the voyages that shaped the world. Take in the sweeping views from Cerro de la Cruz, extending to the Strait of Magellan. Follow in the footsteps of legendary explorers as you roam the highlands of this rugged tundra. And be sure to try the local seafood, a wonder unto itself.

BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA

FEB 15 - 16

Sensual and soulful, the Argentine capital is an irresistibly romantic city that blends old-world charm with golden-age glamour. Famed for steamy tango duets and expertly seared steaks, Buenos Aires delivers a fiery fiesta for the senses. Immerse yourself in culture, from the historical Plaza de Mayo to the artistic Palermo Soho. An overnight stay grants you the freedom to experience the city's magic after dark — at iconic wine bars, traditional steakhouses, and intimate milongas.

OVERLAND | MAGIC OF THE FALLS | FEB 12 - 14

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

CHAPTER 4

From Buenos Aires to Rio de Janeiro

THE BEAT OF TRADITION

In this corner of the world, the native tongue is one that predates language. Its legacy unfolds in songs that transcend time. Rhythms carrying centuries of stories. Beats of passion and pride, of resilience and revelry. Be it small town or sprawling city, the music of love and lore pours out of kitchens and courtyards and cafes. The streets come alive in a composition of living history. The clapping of hands and clicking of heels. Samba dancers twirling to the percussions of marching bands as tango partners move as one across a stage. With each step, each note, and each pulse, the heartbeat of tradition calls upon you.

From Buenos Aires to Rio de Janeiro

From the boutique wineries of Punta del Este to the secluded islands of Paranaguá, uncover innumerable wonders hiding beneath the surface of mainstream tourism. This chapter is anything but mainstream. As you continue up the east coast of South America, wander the cobbled streets of Búzios, a coastal town hailed as the St. Tropez of Brazil. Explore the breathtaking UNESCO biosphere reserve of Ilhabela, renowned for its enchanting beaches and outstanding seafood. Feel the tempo build into unbridled exhilaration as you are swept into a celebration of epic proportions in Rio de Janeiro.

MONTEVIDEO, URUGUAY

FEB 17

Recognized as a UNESCO Creative City, Montevideo has a deep-rooted history of artistic expression — evident in its extraordinary murals, literary cafes, and historical theaters. The city's heritage as one of the birthplaces of tango only adds to its allure. From the iconic Teatro Solís, one of the oldest and most beautiful theaters in South America, to the bustling Mercado del Puerto, where rhythms of candombe fill the air, Montevideo pulses with the lifeblood of artists, artisans, and visionaries.

PARANAGUÁ, BRAZIL

FEB 22

In one of Brazil's oldest cities, you'll unlock a treasure trove of history — from well-preserved architecture to long-standing traditions. The waterways of Paranaguá wind through verdant forests, revealing the area's abundant wildlife and plant species. This lively port serves as the gateway to several breathtaking islands, including the remarkable Ilha do Mel, or Honey Island. Serene and pristine, the island provides a rare glimpse into a world of untouched beauty where cars are forbidden, and nature takes center stage.

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL

FEB 26 - 28

Between its infinite beaches, lush mountains, and electrifying energy, it's no wonder Rio de Janeiro is called the Marvelous City. Climb Mount Corcovado to behold Christ the Redeemer, one of the new Seven World Wonders. Then, spend two nights reveling in the rhythm of a place where celebration is a way of life. Follow the beat of sultry samba from beachside discos to the glittering parades of Rio's Carnaval, which you, of course, get to enjoy from a private box in the center of it all.

Exclusive World Cruise Event

A FESTIVAL OF JOY

CARNAVAL, RIO DE JANEIRO

RIO DE JANEIRO

February 2028

Time dissolves into pure sensation as the pulsing heart of Rio's Carnaval beats through the legendary Sambódromo to the unifying tempo of steel drums and cymbals. With cocktails flowing and churrasco sizzling, join in the all-night celebrations from preferred seating affording front box views alongside this famed runway of motion and magic. Surrender to the hypnotic rhythms of countless feet and the shimmer of sequins catching starlight. This is Rio at its most enthralling — a celebration of joy, where every moment demands to be lived completely.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

A person with a backpack is standing on a rocky cliff, looking out over a sunset. The sky is orange and blue, and the rocks are dark and jagged.

CHAPTER 5

From Rio de Janeiro to Cape Town

THE SANDS OF TIME

These are lands where moments stretch like shadows across an infinite desert. Etched in grains of sand are stories of prosperity and perseverance, of the whaling era and the diamond rush, of Napoleon's influence and Mandela's legacy. In dunes of gold sienna and honey caramel, velvety peaks and pockets reveal the fingerprints of time. Follow the trails of history across plains of fine quartz, weathered granite, and volcanic rock collecting centuries of sun. Discover the ports where cultural identities took root and ancient traditions found new expression.

From Rio de Janeiro to Cape Town

Conclude your time in South America by immersing yourself in the European, African, and Amerindian cultures of Brazil's first capital. Discover impeccably preserved Renaissance buildings in the UNESCO listed historic center of Salvador de Bahia. Then, set sail for the west coast of Africa. Marvel at some of the world's tallest sand dunes in the Namib desert. Uncover the unusual history of Lüderitz, a quaint seaside town framed by vast plains of uncharted beauty. Learn about the life and legacy of Nelson Mandela as you visit Cape Town's most notable landmarks and museums. Multiple overnights allow you to delve deeper into the rich offerings of this extraordinary region.

JAMESTOWN, ST. HELENA

MAR 8

As one of the world's most remote inhabited islands, Jamestown is a place where time stands still. Tucked in a valley between volcanic cliffs, this hidden outpost is home to historical sites, endemic wildlife, and striking landscapes. Battle-worn cannons scattered across the island serve as reminders of its military past. The meticulously preserved rooms of Longwood House, where Napoleon Bonaparte spent his final years, offer a fascinating glimpse into the fallen emperor's time on the island.

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

MAR 12 - 13

Desert meets ocean in the coastal oasis of Walvis Bay, where you'll meet some of the continent's most flamboyant wildlife. Encounter flocks of flamingos wading through the protected, sapphire waters of Walvis Bay Lagoon. Namibia's fishing capital is a renowned paradise for bird lovers, and a delight for seafood connoisseurs. Local delicacies include kingklip, angel fish, and the prized rock lobster. Just beyond the bay, Dune 7 towers over it all, proudly earning its title as the tallest sand dune in Africa.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

MAR 16 - 18

Take a few days to absorb the rugged beauty, cosmopolitan energy, and complex history of South Africa's Mother City. Trace Nelson Mandela's journey to freedom — from Robben Island to City Hall. Stories of struggle and strength are poignantly captured in local museums where art and artifacts reveal the intricate layers of this city's cultural identity. Head north to frolic through wildflower fields in the UNESCO listed Cape Floral Region, then tour the famed vineyards of the neighboring Cape Winelands.

OVERLAND | A NIGHT ON TABLE MOUNTAIN | MAR 16 - 17

After a day of exploration, retreat to lavish tents for a night of stargazing at the summit of Table Mountain, overlooking Cape Town's twinkling skyline and the vast ocean beyond. Drift off into blissful sleep, serenaded by the soothing sounds of nature in this once-in-a-lifetime optional Overland Experience*

*This is an optional Overland Experience available for an additional cost. Participation in Overland Experiences is subject to availability and may require advance booking.

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA

CHAPTER 6

From Cape Town to Mabé

NATURE IN VERSE

There's a certain poetry in untamed wilderness, as each new landscape unfolds like a love letter from the earth. Emerald mountains cascade into sapphire seas while sunsets paint the skies in stanzas of amber and gold. Herds of elephants gather in silence across vast savannas as lions and leopards pen their presence. Marvel at the majesty of the natural world, as you venture into the wild plains of this remarkable region. Surrender to the rush of waterfalls and the echo of drums, the metered cadence of waves on pristine shores. In this corner of the world, nature speaks in metaphors that transcend words, inscribing its timeless narrative upon your soul.

From Cape Town to Mahé

Journey eastward along South Africa's majestic coastline to the sun-drenched vineyards of Mossel Bay, where you'll savor world-class wines. Search for the "Big Five" — elephant, lion, leopard, rhino, and African buffalo — in the renowned game reserves of Port Elizabeth. Explore the wetlands wilderness of Richards Bay where hippos wallow and birds dance in their natural habitats. Revel in the volcanic landscapes and Creole culture of Reunion before Mauritius welcomes you with its multi-cultural charm, colonial architecture, and exotic botanical gardens. This stretch of your journey concludes in the Seychelles, where pristine beaches and crystalline waters recite nature's closing verse.

PORT ELIZABETH (GQEBERHA), SOUTH AFRICA

MAR 20 - 21

Known affectionately as P.E. by locals, this sparkling city in Algoa Bay serves as the gateway to extraordinary wildlife encounters. An overnight stay allows ample time to venture into the nearby Addo Elephant National Park and Kragga Kamma Game Park, where the “Big Five” roam freely. Back in the city, follow the Donkin Heritage Trail past Victorian landmarks and vibrant markets where local artisans showcase beadwork, woodcraft, and pottery — tangible expressions of a rich cultural heritage.

POINTE DES GALETS, REUNION

MAR 28

This French territory rises dramatically from the deep blue waters of the Indian Ocean, a testament to nature’s artistry. Explore the UNESCO listed volcanic landscape of Pitons, cirques, and remparts to see emerald peaks framing breathtaking calderas. Wander charming villages adorned with 19th-century Creole architecture. Pristine coral reefs offer unparalleled snorkeling and hiking trails lead to thundering waterfalls. Every corner of this island is enriched by the harmony of French sophistication and raw nature.

PORT LOUIS, MAURITIUS

MAR 29 - 30

A diverse tapestry of cultures, Port Louis has a distinctive lure. Explore the UNESCO listed Aapravasi Ghat to learn about the island’s complex heritage. Beyond the city, discover the mesmerizing Chamarel Seven-Coloured Earth, a geological marvel of rainbow-hued volcanic soil. Stroll botanical gardens graced by giant water lilies and jade vines. From secluded beaches to vibrant markets, Port Louis offers a sensory kaleidoscope illuminated by the warm hospitality of its multi-cultural inhabitants.

A DAY IN PARADISE

ÎLE AUX CERFS, MAURITIUS

MAURITIUS

March 29, 2028

On the picturesque Île aux Cerfs, time ebbs and flows with the gentle tides of the Indian Ocean. Cast off the eastern shores of Mauritius, where a pristine utopia of white sands and turquoise lagoons becomes your private sanctuary for a day of pure enchantment. Feel warm sand between your toes as you wander hectares of untouched beauty. Let the rhythm of lapping waves and the beat of sega drums ground you in the presence of pure paradise.

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

CHAPTER 7

From Mahé to Dubai

TALES OF SPICE AND SILK

Step into a living parable where ancient traditions coexist with future innovations. This is a story scripted by Arabian forts and castles — passed down to skyscrapers lining urban cities. Follow the paths once marched by desert kings and dynastic rulers, walked by mercenaries, lived by common folk. Where saffron and Persian silk were passionately traded, and battles fought valiantly on sunbaked shores and in the Arabian Sea. Here, you'll find a thread between past, future, and present. In architecture and agriculture. In mythologies unearthed and stories unwritten. In lost cities and lucrative trade routes. The story of each place lives on — in history and heritage, legacy and legend.

From Mabé to Dubai

Sail from the Indian Ocean to the Arabian Sea, leaving behind mountain peaks and Creole culture for glittering skylines and Middle Eastern traditions. Behold the immaculate beauty of UNESCO Heritage Sites such as Vallée de Mai Nature Reserve in Praslin, home to the coco de mer palm, and Qal'at al-Bahrain in Al Manamah, with its archaeological remnants of ancient civilizations. With four overnights in this remarkable region, you'll have time to explore the Musandam Fjords, wander Ottoman-era castles, and walk the path of historical trade routes through desert plains and Arabian markets. Conclude this chapter in the heart of the Arabian Desert along Dubai's sparkling coast of soaring skyscrapers.

MUSCAT, OMAN

APRIL 9 - 11

An ancient port city on the Gulf of Oman, Muscat remains a central hub for trade and tourism. Its briskly teeming souks offer a glimpse into the richness of local crafts, spices, and textiles. Relish this city through its ancestral gastronomy, including shuwa and majboos. Bask in the wonder of Qurum Beach, snorkeling through its reefs alongside constellations of starfish, or paddleboarding against a backdrop of skyscrapers. Discover the legends and customs of a place that is both timeless and ever evolving.

ABU DHABI, UNITED ARAB AMIRATES

APR 13 - 14

Woven into the tapestry of Abu Dhabi is a history of trade routes, Emirati cuisine, and time-honored rituals. See the city's cultural impact through architectural marvels, like the palatial Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque and the iconic Louvre Abu Dhabi. Roam the Arabian Desert on camel-back or ATV. Explore Yas Island, home to Ferrari World and Warner Bros. World. Abu Dhabi treads the line between ancient heritage and futuristic innovation — a paradox worth experiencing and a story worth sharing.

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB AMIRATES

APR 18 - 19

Where desert meets sea, tradition meets modernization, and century-old mosques meet soaring skyscrapers. In this city of contrasts, Dubai's skyline is best experienced from the tallest building in the world, Burj Khalifa. Take in the fragrant and exotic aromas as you wander into spice markets and bazaars. Spend the day sandboarding and the night stargazing. From arid plains to towering structures, Dubai embodies futuristic development within a culturally rich city that continues to grow skyward.

OVERLAND | GORILLAS IN THE MIST | APR 3 - 9

Leave the misty heights of Mahé for the dense forests of Rwanda and embark on a trek through bamboo foliage to the natural habitat of silverback gorillas. From a safe distance, marvel at the majesty of these magnificent giants, gaining unique insight into the innerworkings of their hidden world. *

*This is an optional Overland Experience available for an additional cost. Participation in Overland Experiences is subject to availability and may require advance booking.

CHAPTER 8

From Dubai to Piraeus (Athens)

THE ANCIENT REALM

Beneath the watchful gaze of a limestone sphynx, an ancient realm reveals itself. Pyramids pierce the skyline. Opulent temples and tombs preserve the memory of kings who lived as gods and went on to rule the afterlife. Alabaster columns echo the chisel of hieroglyphics, the scratch of reed pens on papyrus. Millennia unravel in moments as you grasp the temporal measure of empires, exodus, and eternity. Stand where pharaohs once sat upon golden thrones. Roam the ochre streets where philosophers pondered the stars, and astronomers mapped the heavens. Here, every port becomes a portal to the past, every monument, a tether to the ancient world, and every city, a living time capsule.

SUEZ CANAL, EGYPT

From Dubai to Piraeus (Athens)

There are moments in history when humans achieved feats beyond their time, creating architecture, art, and meaning in ways that still seem shrouded in the magic of gods. The sculpted monuments of Petra and intricate structures of Luxor remain remarkably intact, offering a glimpse into the earliest traces of civilization. Discover the ancient world up close as you wander The Land of Frankincense, roam the catacombs of Kom el Shoqafa, and sail the sacred waters that carried Moses and Ramesses to their immortalized destinies. Cross the historical Suez Canal en route to Athens, where you'll continue to explore humanity's ancient wonders.

AQABA (PETRA), JORDAN

APR 29

Carved into the rusty-red rock of the Jordanian desert, the Lost City of Petra has been mesmerizing visitors since its rediscovery in 1812. As one of the New Seven Wonders of the World, and a renowned UNESCO site, this ancient city reveals a remarkable sophistication in its architecture and infrastructure, both of which allowed the Nabataean Kingdom to thrive amid the arid desert. Among Petra's many marvels, the most famous is perhaps The Treasury, having featured in Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade.

SAFAGA (LUXOR), EGYPT

APR 30

Often called "the world's greatest open-air museum", Luxor is home to some of ancient Egypt's most storied remnants. Millennia unfold in this vast archaeological landscape of limestone and sandstone. Explore otherworldly structures that have withstood the test of time, from the Colossi of Memnon to the Temple of Karnak. Walk the historical Avenue of the Sphinxes, where ancient stone guardians lead you down a path once marched by pharaohs. Luxor is also a prime location for snorkeling the Red Sea.

ALEXANDRIA, EGYPT

MAY 3 - 4

Founded by Alexander the Great in the 4th century BC, Alexandria is a city where layers of history peek through a modern landscape. This massive metropolis was built upon the ancient ruins of the fallen Alexandria, once home to Ptolemy and Cleopatra. Trace the Canopic Way along Shar'a al-Horreya before exploring the Bibliotheca Alexandrina, a tribute to the Great Library. An overnight grants you extra time to venture to the Pyramids of Giza, one of the greatest wonders of the ancient world.

OVERLAND / TEMPLES AND TOMBS / APR 30

Walk in the shadow of history as you uncover the treasures of Luxor on an overnight visit to the Valley of the Kings and Queens. Nestled within the ancient necropolis of Thebes, these valleys are home to the temples and tombs of ancient Egypt's most illustrious rulers, from King Tutankhamun to Queen Hatshepsut.*

*This is an optional Overland Experience available for an additional cost. Participation in Overland Experiences is subject to availability and may require advance booking.

ATHENS, GREECE

CHAPTER 9

From Piraeus (Athens) to Nice

ECHOES OF EMPIRES

Ancient ruins echo tales of the civilizations that shaped our world. Marble columns reach skyward like timeless sentinels where cobbled streets wind through quaint villages. Gilded sunlight bathes legendary pathways once walked by philosophers, artists, and emperors. Feel the weight of history beneath your feet. Here, where the indelible legacies of countless empires inform modern life, you'll savor cuisines crafted from recipes passed through generations, olive oils pressed from centennial trees, and wines fermented with age-old techniques. In this cradle of Western civilization, past and present unite in mystical landscapes, crafting a mosaic of unforgettable moments and a glorious finale to your extraordinary journey.

From Piraeus (Athens) to Nice

The final chapter of your odyssey begins amidst the majesty of Athens, where the immortal enchantment of the Acropolis stands eternal. From here, set forth to Milos, where volcanic formations create otherworldly seascapes beside turquoise waters. In Nafplion, classical ruins reveal the glory of ancient Mycenae while Valletta's honey-colored bastions guard treasures belonging to the Knights of St. John. The volcanic Aeolian island of Lipari beckons with dramatic vistas, and Agropoli offers access to lush national parklands. Two days in Livorno serve as a gateway to rolling vineyards in Tuscany and Renaissance masterpieces in Florence. Your epic voyage concludes in Nice along the sun-splashed French Riviera.

NAFPLION, GREECE

MAY 8

Greece's first capital captivates with Venetian architecture and bougainvillea-draped balconies. Climb to the Palamidi Fortress for panoramic views across terracotta rooftops to the Argolic Gulf beyond. Venture to the nearby UNESCO listed wonders of Mycenae, where legends of Agamemnon come alive among ancient citadel ruins. Explore the immaculately preserved Theatre of Epidaurus with its remarkable acoustics that have fascinated audiences for over two millennia.

VALLETTA, MALTA

MAY 10

Rising dramatically from azure waters, Malta's fortified capital stands as a baroque masterpiece carved in golden limestone. This UNESCO World Heritage Site overflows with history — from the ornate St. John's Co-Cathedral to the Grand Master's Palace. Descend into the prehistoric Hal Saflieni Hypogeum, a subterranean necropolis predating Egypt's pyramids. Stroll the Upper Barrakka Gardens for sweeping harbor views before wandering a labyrinth of narrow streets where knights once roamed.

LIVORNO (TUSCANY), ITALY

MAY 14 - 15

Your overnight stay in this vibrant port city opens doors to Florence's artistic treasures. Follow the footsteps of Medici through the Uffizi Gallery lined with masterpieces by Botticelli and da Vinci, and stand in awe before Michelangelo's legendary David at the Accademia Gallery. Choose to explore Pisa's iconic leaning tower or the medieval skyline of San Gimignano rising above vineyard-draped hills. Journey into Tuscany's cypress-lined countryside to sample the renowned wines of centuries-old estates.
